NO. 169—SEVENTIETH YEAR — VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1928

SAANICH TO VOTE ON BUS BY-LAW SOON

Council Will Submit Transportation Franchise to Electorate for Approval on July 14

OFFER FOR EAST ROAD CONCESSION

Public Utilities Commission Will Have Final Word in Any Dispute Over Rates, Schedules or Other Points

RATEPAYERS of Saanich will go to the polls on July 14, just four days prior to the general election, to endorse the action of the council in connection with granting to Mr. J. S. H. Matson a twenty-year franchise for passenger coach transportation in the municipality, and also to endorse the sale of the Lake Hill Municipal Bus Service for the sum of $15,000. The agreement between Mr. Matson and the council, in the form of a by-law, was read three times and endorsed by the council, and will now be submitted to the vote of the people before being finally passed, and later validated by the Provincial Legislature.

Mr. R. R. F. Sewell, municipal clerk, was appointed returning officer. Voting will take place between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. The polling stations in each ward are as follows: Ward One, Cedar Hill School; Ward Two, Tolmie School; Ward Three, Gordon Head School; Ward Four, Marigold Hall; Ward Five, Royal Oak School; Ward Six, Temperance Hall, and Ward Seven, Tillicum School.

Introduction of the franchise agreement between Saanich and Mr. Matson, with respect to the entire reorganization of the transportation system, was featured by an eleventh-hour bid by the Empress Taxi Company to retain control of the passenger service on the East Saanich Road. In the early stage of discussion it was revealed by Councillor Ragan that there was a bid made for the franchise.

OFFER MADE

The offer from Mr. Olson was $20,000 for a twenty-year franchise on the East Saanich Road, payment to be made at the rate of $1,000 a year. This was for the exclusive right of picking up passengers in Saanich on the East Road only.

When the offer was made known Councillor Stubbs pointed out that it was made at a very late date. Reeve Crouch emphasized this point, and said that the opportunity had passed for any further bids for franchises. Mr. Olson had never approached Saanich in this matter until now, and the council could not be delayed by constant dickering; and, in any event, the council was concerned with the improvement of the transportation throughout the whole municipality and not just one route.

The franchise agreement between Mr. Matson and Saanich is summarized as follows:

That inasmuch as Mr. Matson proposes to purchase the Lake Hill Bus Service from Saanich and take over the entire transportation system in Saanich, it was agreed between the corporation and Mr. Matson that Mr. Matson should establish and equip a system of coach lines for the carriage of the passenger traffic in Saanich, and would maintain and operate the same for a period of twenty years.

He officially notified the clergy of his diocese that "the new form of service for confirmation corresponding with the alternative form contained in the revised prayer book will be used at all future confirmation services" in the diocese.

SQUARE DEAL FOR GROWERS IS DEMANDED

Hon. R. B. Bennett Condemns Liberal Government for Allowing Dumping Farm Products

FARMER ROBBED OF HIS ONLY MARKET

SWEETSBURGH, Que., June 25.—Despite leaden skies, a large crowd greeted Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Conservative party in the Dominion Parliament, at the joint Conservative meeting for the towns of Sweetsburgh and Cowansville this afternoon.

Mr. Bennett was introduced as "Canada's hope."

"We have behind us the history of the French and the English speaking races," said Mr. Bennett. "It should be our desire to give to the people of our vast Dominion peace, happiness and health. That should be our aim—to do all we can for Canada.

"I am not here to talk narrow politics or to make an appeal to race, creed or religion," Mr. Bennett said, "but I would say this, that whether in power or out of power the policies of the Conservative party have made Canada what it is."

He proposed to deal with the tariff wall of the United States against Canadian products.

JUG-HANDLED TRADE

"Why does the American place a tariff against Canadian milk, cream, butter and eggs?" Mr. Bennett asked. "The United States Government is keeping this country behind the line for their own farmers," he said. American farmers, by recent acts of the present Government, will dump their products into this country and destroy the home market for our farmers.

"Why should farmers be denied their own market?

"Why should Canadian farmers lose their domestic market by United States products being dumped into Canada when a tariff barrier was placed against our farmer products. It is not a question of high tariff, but it is a question of using the instruments we have to protect our own people," he stated.

This country could only be great by having a united policy from the Atlantic to the Pacific, a united policy for the development of Canada as a whole for the protection and development of the country which would give work to the people and keep them in Canada, said the speaker.

PIONEER DAYS ARE RECALLED

LATE MR. WILLIAM DAVIS A RESIDENT OF CANADA SINCE 1866

Was One of Original Members of R.N.W.M.P., Coming to Victoria in 1885

Mr. William Davis, 317 Simcoe Street, a resident of the city for over forty years and of Canada since 1866, passed away Sunday morning at the Jubilee Hospital after a week's illness.

Born in London seventy-five years ago, Mr. Davis migrated to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in 1863. In 1866 the family moved to Ottawa, where his boyhood days were spent. When the Royal Northwest Mounted Police was organized in 1872 Mr. Davis joined at the age of nineteen.

He was then sent to the Prairies as one of the first organized body of the R.N.W.M.P. to patrol the Canadian wildernesses, and in later years often recounted the stirring days of the Sioux Indians and their depredations. During the time that Sitting Bull and his warriors invaded Cypress Hills, near the United States border, Mr. Davis was stationed there with fifty other troopers under Colonel Walsh. The Indians were fresh from attacks on white settlers south of the border, but after a powwow decided to establish friendly relations with the little force.

In 1877 Mr. Davis was transferred to Fort McLeod, Alta., under the command of Colonel McLeod, and in that year took part in making

Train Wrecked

MEXICO CITY, June 25.—The passenger train from Laredo to Mexico City was wrecked early this morning near Vivorillas, a few miles east of Queretaro. Both the fireman and engineer were killed and several passengers were injured. The wreck occurred when the train struck a section where rails had been removed, presumably by insurgents.

Conservative Leader Points Out Necessity of Mining Expansion if Province to Continue Growth

BURNS LAKE, B.C., June 25.—Although he was only scheduled to deliver two addresses today in Omineca Riding, such was the insistent demand for him to outline his policy for the improvement of the province that Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leader, had to crowd in two extra meetings in the course of his two hundred-mile drive from Smithers to Vanderhook. Everywhere through the northern ridings Dr. Tolmie is being received with acclaim, his proposals for the development of farming and mining industries as basic supports for prosperity are being enthusiastically received.

Having completed his tour of the Prince Rupert and Skeena Ridings, Dr. Tolmie today expressed to a Burns Lake audience his confidence in victory in those districts and in Omineca, as well as throughout the province. At Vanderhook, party supporters have been offering odds without takers that the Attorney-General will be defeated.

WINNING SUPPORT

At Burns Lake and at Houston farmers left their fields, and housewives deserted their kitchens to hear Dr. Tolmie speak, and applauded him to the echo. His practical understanding of the problems of pioneering and his ready sympathy and earnestness for the development of

OPTION IS SIGNED ON COLISEUM

British Better Pictures Company Fires First Shots in Patriotic Film Campaign

LONG CHAIN OF HOUSES PLANNED

With the signing by the British Better Pictures Company of an option on the Coliseum Theatre, Government Street, Victoria has the distinction of coming into possession of the first British Film Theatre in the British Empire.

The negotiations were carried to this interesting stage last Saturday, when Mr. J. O Gray, of Vancouver, president of the company, attached his signature to the papers which transfer the former Pantages Theatre to the new interests on the expiration of the present picture contracts. These will come to an end in about a month or less, when the sale will immediately become effective.

The sale of the Coliseum to the British Better Pictures Company is the firing of the first fusilade in what the directors of the new concern characterize as the greatest moral war that has ever been staged. It signifies the beginning of a patriotic campaign for British ideals and standards, conveyed through the medium of the motion picture.

MARKET LACKING

Viewed from the purely commercial angle it signifies the rebirth of an industry which has hitherto suffered greatly in the Empire from lack of proper market; for the Coliseum is but the first of a vast chain of theatres whose co-operation it is hoped to enlist throughout Canada and other parts of the Empire. And with such a chain of movie houses in which to show British pictures, new life will be given to the industry. Income as well as capital will be forthcoming for the production of far finer pictures than have ever hitherto been possible, and hundreds of Britishers now employed at Hollywood and

OXYGEN SUPPLY NOT SUFFICIENT

SEATTLE, June 25.—Losing consciousness 29,000 feet above the ground today when his oxygen supply became exhausted, E. T. Allen, veteran air mail pilot, nose dived in a plane he was testing 7,000 feet before he regained consciousness and control of the plane. He landed the plane safely, but was nearly exhausted from his experience.

Allen was testing a single seater manufactured by the Boeing Airplane Company as a navy scout plane Saturday. He failed to reach 26,000 feet because of lack of oxygen. He said the plane was functioning well and still going up when he lost consciousness today.

Dissension in British Labor Party Evinced

GLASGOW, Scotland, June 25.—J. Wheatley, Labor member of the House of Commons for Shettleston, told a gathering of his constituents today he was in sympathy with the manifesto of James Maxton, Labor member of the House of Commons, and A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, published last night, in which they declared the Labor Party had departed from the principles which animated its founders.

"I believe you sent me to Parliament to bring about Socialism in our time," said Mr. Wheatley, "so I will support Maxton and Cook in the task of emancipating the working classes."

EFFORT TO SALVAGE ENTERPRISE WILL BE MADE THIS WEEK

Special Meeting of Council Will Be Called for Friday Next

There will be a special meeting of the City Council on Friday evening next, when the report of the committee dealing with the motion picture project will be brought up. The special meeting in fact is being called for the purpose of taking up this matter, which Mayor Pendray stated last night was not quite ready.

Alderman Mara asked if there was a proposal to come forward suggesting that the city finance the production of the first picture, which the Pacific Pictures Limited proposed to produce.

Mayor Pendray said in reply that there was such a proposal suggested. The whole matter would be gone into at the special meeting of the council.

OFFICIAL DENIAL

BUCHAREST, Rumania, June 25.—An official denial that Princess Helen, mother of King Michael and divorced wife of Prince Carol, intends to remarry, was issued today. The denial states that all names connected with hers are absolute inventions.

Proclamation Of Gold Basis Made in France

PARIS, June 25.—France today was on a gold basis with the franc having a legal value of 3.93 cents in American money.

Premier Poincare's legislation for stabilization of the currency was enacted by the Senate, 256 to 3, after the Chamber of Deputies had passed the bill. The measure was promulgated today in a special edition of the official journal.

Return of France to the gold basis leaves Spain the principal European country which has not stabilized its currency since the war. The other countries which have not yet come into line are Norway, Rumania, Turkey and Bulgaria.

The French stabilization was on the basis of 65 1-2 milligrams of gold nine-tenths fine to the franc.

TWO PARTIES NOMINATE IN S. VANCOUVER

Conservatives Name Reeve Cornett; Liberals, Mr. C. W. Feast — Mr. E. L. Doolan Dissatisfied

NEW CANDIDATE IN NORTH VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, June 25.—Reeve J. W. Cornett was chosen Conservative candidate in South Vancouver at a convention held in that riding tonight. Only one ballot was necessary to settle the issue between Reeve Cornett and Clive Planta, the two whose names went to the ballot. The detailed result of the vote was not announced.

Addresses were given by Hon. H. H. Stevens, M.P.; Leon Ladner, M.P., and others.

A challenge to the British Columbia Government to give the people a fair accounting of their administration was voiced by speakers, who stressed the present financial standing of the province as compared with the debt and taxation when the Liberals assumed office in 1916.

MINORITY PROTEST

Despite a determined effort by a minority to cancel the nominating convention or to block nominations, C. W. Feast was picked by the Liberals of South Vancouver to carry the Liberal banner in the forthcoming election at the convention held in Maple Hall, South Vancouver, tonight.

Mr. Feast was nominated by acclamation after five other nominees had withdrawn.

At the opening of the meeting E. L. Doolan gave a minority report, voicing objection to the convention. He was frequently interrupted by cries of "Sit down," "Out of order," but persisted.

N. VANCOUVER AND CARIBOO

NORTH VANCOUVER, June 25.—The open nominating convention to be held here for the purpose of placing an independent candidate in the field will be held on Thursday evening, instead of Wednesday, as originally announced.

Reeve V. V. Vinson, of West Vancouver, and A. C. McMillan, of this city, have announced that they will allow their names to go before the convention, and several other prominent North Shore citizens are mentioned as possibilities for the nomination.

QUESNEL, June 25.—"Nothing in it," D. A. Stoddart said here when asked if there was any truth in the rumor that he might drop out of the contest in Cariboo, where he is running as an independent. His nomination papers are already made out and will soon be in the hands of the returning officer.

NOBILE ASKS PLANES FROM GT. BRITAIN

Small Planes Equipped With Skis Like Those Manufactured for Canada Are Found to Be Best

SWEDISH AIRMAN NOT YET RESCUED

Two of General Nobile's Party Have Been Brought to Kings Bay — No Word of Amundsen's Fate

ROME, June 25.—A dispatch from Kings Bay says that General Umberto Nobile sent a message to his comrades still on the ice floe near Foyn Island, informing them that two small airplanes had been requested from England as a "precautionary measure."

It is believed here that General Nobile means to use the small planes as a complement to the Swedish planes, inasmuch as the small airplanes equipped with skiis have proved more efficient than larger ones for landing on the ice.

OSLO, Norway, June 25.—It is reported from Spitzbergen that a heavy fog prevented the take-off of Swedish airmen from their base at the steamer Quest today in an attempt to rescue Lieut. Einar Paal Lundborg, down on the ice with part of the Italia's crew.

SECOND MAN BROUGHT

(Copyright, 1928, by the Associated Press)

KINGS BAY, Spitzbergen, June 25.—A second member of the crew of the ill-fated Italia had been rescued tonight by airplane, but four others and the crew of a wrecked Swedish airplane were still marooned on an ice cake, awaiting succor.

Meanwhile elsewhere—somewhere—on the broad Arctic spaces, still are sixteen other men of whom there has been no trace. They are the seven last heard of as with the remains of the Italia; the three who left General Nobile afoot to find land, and the would-be rescuers, Roald Amundsen, Rene Guilbaud, Leif Dietrichsen and their plane's crew of three.

Following upon the removal of Gen. Umberto Nobile from the ice cake near Foyn Island Saturday, the motor chief of the Italia, Natale Cecconi, has been rescued and presumably taken to the base ship, Citta di Milano, now at Vorigo Bay, sixty miles north of here.

PLANE OVERTURNS

From the group still stranded, today came information regarding the initial rescue attempt there Saturday, when, after General Nobile had been taken off the floe and returned to the Citta di Milano, the Swedish plane piloted by Lieut. R. Lundborg returned, only to overturn in attempting a landing.

Lundborg reported by wireless today that he had escaped injury, and was attempting to put a runway on the ice block, which is about 900 feet long and 600 feet wide, in shape for landing light two-men planes.

In messages given press agencies, General Nobile himself, from his bed aboard the Citta di Milano, explained the circumstances which caused his removal in preferment to his men. He insisted, after the landing of the Swedish pilot, Lundborg, he said, that Cecconi be taken off first and the others in their turn, he himself to remain until among the last. Lundborg told him, however, that instructions were to "rescue General Nobile first, so as to permit him to aid in directing the rescue work for the others."

Mr. J. G. Sutherland to Succeed Mr. Cotterell — Other Changes—Effective July 1

WINNIPEG, June 25.—An important series of changes in the operating organization of the Canadian Pacific Railway in Western Canada was announced here today by W. M Neal, general manager of Western lines, to take effect July 1. Mr. A. E. Stevens, who for the past ten years has been general superintendent of the Manitoba district with headquarters in Winnipeg, will relinquish his duties at the end of the present month in accordance with the company's retirement plan. Mr. Stevens has had a long and successful career in Canadian Pacific service, having commenced as a telegraph operator at Golden in 1886.

Mr. E. D. Cotterell, superintendent of transportation, succeeds Mr. Stevens as general superintendent Manitoba division.

OTHER CHANGES

Further changes are as follows. A. Hallatt, general superintendent Algoma district, to be general superintendent Alberta district; J. G Sutherland, superintendent Calgary division, to be superintendent of transportation Western lines; J. L. Jamieson, superintendent Brandon division, to be superin-

DEMOCRATIC PARTY CONVENTION OPENS IN HOUSTON TODAY

Interest in Battle Between Wets and Drys Almost Equal to That in Race for Presidential Nomination—Dry Forces Are Anti-Smith, But Not Co-ordinated

Nothing in Sight to Prevent Victory of Governor Al Smith

HOUSTON, Texas, June 25.—The Democratic Presidential nomination lay just around the corner tonight for Governor Alfred Smith of New York. Meeting here to choose its standard bearer, the party's national convention will get together tomorrow at noon with a greater number of delegates committeed to one man than at any time since 1916, when Woodrow Wilson was named by acclamation.

An insistent minority was doing battle against the New York Governor tonight, but it was not a co-ordinated force. Its cry was for a dry candidate and a dry platform, but where the Smith ranks were solid for their man the minority group apparently had "been unable to settle upon a unity of command or upon a leader for whom to wage its warfare." The one purpose was to defeat Smith, and, to most of the delegates who came to Houston to prime the party for the 1928 campaign, that seemed to be a forlorn hope.

With the wet and dry fight crowding the presidential race closely for first place in public interest, the party leaders continued their efforts to smooth out before the resolutions committee the differences of opinion within the various delegations over the form of a prohibition plank in the party platform. The probable success or failure of the efforts for the moment crowded into the background the speculation over what the convention would do about the farm relief issue which also gave promise of becoming a leading issue.

There were three lines of thought over prohibition—one group wanted a plank naming the eighteenth amendment as a part of the constitution which should be rigidly enforced. A second believed the party should call for enforcement of all laws without specifying one particular statute. A third asked that the Volstead Act be modified.

GOVERNOR DAN MOODY

It was definitely determined today that Franklin D. Roosevelt would place Governor Smith in nomination and in addition would be the Smith field general during the convention. The dry and anti-Smith forces continued to look to Governor Dan Moody of Texas to lead them on the floor. Moody's arrival here gave impetus to the dry crusade, and many of the delegates have made him the unofficial generalissimo for their cause. Many of the delegates were holding caucuses in hot hotel rooms tonight to decide on a course of action in a convention which gave every promise of furnishing a band wagon performance.

Train Wreck in Kansas Injures More Than Sixty

IOLA, Kansas, June 25.—A broken rail near Durand, Kansas, sixteen miles west of here early today, sent one car of the fast Missouri Pacific passenger train "Southerner" crashing into a creek, and overturned two others, causing injuries to sixty-three persons, six of whom were in a critical condition tonight.

The wreck occurred just as the train, from New Orleans to Kansas City, was passing over Owl Creek bridge, south of Durand, at 4 a.m.

BRITISH-BORN PEOPLE NEEDED

Mr. D. B. Hanna, President of Western Canada Flour Mills Co., Stresses Immigration Requirements

SAYS POLICY IS LACKING SUCCESS

Dissatisfaction with the progress made in bringing British-born settlers to Canada was voiced last evening by Mr. D. B. Hanna, president of the Western Canada Flour Mills Co., Ltd.

The occasion was a dinner at the Union Club by Senator Barnard and Mr. R. H. B. Ker, local directors, to officers of the Western Canada and Brackman-Ker Milling companies, who are in attendance at the annual conference here of the key-men of the two organizations.

"There is something very wrong with our immigration policy," declared Mr. Hanna, "when we have industries developed ahead of our time by reason of the fact that the settlement of this great country is not keeping pace with that development. Here we have the Brackman-Ker Company, with an organization of twenty branches, weathering the storms of fifty years—a business which had its beginnings eight years before British Columbia was linked by rail with the eastern provinces—yet today the total population of Canada represents only three persons for each square mile of territory."

An immigration policy which failed to encourage more British-born to settle in Canada was wrong in principle, said Mr. Hanna, and he expressed the hope that this condition would be remedied in the near future.

CAREER ENDS

WINNIPEG, June 25. — A six months' career of chicken thieving, which had taken toll of more than a thousand birds, was brought to an abrupt end in provincial court today when Norman Domenta and Thomas Roski, described as "the star chicken thieves of the province," were sentenced to three years in Stony Mountain penitentiary.

Traveling in a big automobile, specially equipped for carrying away the plunder, the two men operated on a wholesale scale in rural districts. A burglar alarm placed on a chicken coop door aided in the capture of the henhouse marrauders.

"We must make the country safe for our chickens," said Magistrate Noble when he pronounced sentence.

Addresses of Third Day of Congress Deal Largely With Russia, Poland, Hungary and Rumania

DELEGATES NUMBER MORE THAN 4,000

TORONTO, June 25.—Marking the tercentenary of John Bunyan, author of Pilgrim's Progress, with special exercises, the Baptist World Alliance brought to a close the third day of its fourth congress here this evening. Addresses were delivered by Rev. W. J. McGlothlin, of Greenville, S.C., and Rev. T. R. Glover, of St. John's College, Cambridge, England, on the life and works of the Puritan mystic, who though born a tinker's son, has exerted a world-wide influence on religious life. A Bunyan memorial window was presented to McMaster University on behalf of the Baptists of the world by Rev. George Truest, acting president in the absence of W. J. Mullins.

Discussion of the problems of the church on the continent of Europe occupied the congress at the afternoon session.

Representatives of seven European countries outlined the conditions of their churches.

The first discussion of the congress took place today on the sub-

Several other persons were injured in the blast but were able to go to their homes after treatment at the scene of the accident.

The dead woman, whose parents are believed to live out of town, was in the office of the garage when the blast from the fifty-gallon tank wrecked the lower front portion of the building. Fire authorities could throw no light on the origin of the explosion.

He said that he will devote himself to a revival of the Liberal party and to working out a victory for that party in the coming general elections.

Mr. Matson agreed to maintain on the existing routes a schedule of trips not less than was now maintained, and that the fares be not increased without the consent of the council.

That the Public Utilities Commission or Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council should have complete jurisdiction upon all matters of rates, insurance, service, routes, rules and regulations.

That the council have the right to notify Mr. Matson of any changes or improvements in the service which they might consider should be made, or place any complaint before Mr. Matson that might concern the operations of the company. In the event that a decision could not be brought about, the question would then be taken to the Public Utilities Commission.

Mr. Matson may also operate an express and freight service, but may not have an exclusive right.

A clause is provided for the making of regulations governing passengers traveling on the coaches by the company.

During the term of the franchise the company will carry school children within the municipality at the same percentage of fares as charged for school children by other public service corporations.

At the end of the twenty years, the corporation would have the right to take over the whole undertaking at the value of the assets to be fixed, in default of agreement, by arbitration. If the corporation does not desire to take over the undertaking, then the exclusive franchise will be granted until such time as it will be ended. The corporation will have the right to terminate the franchise by giving five years' notice.

FURTHER CLAUSES

If, during the term of the franchise, the company should be unable to continue its operations, the corporation will have the right to take possession of all of the coaches and to operate the same without remuneration to the company for a period of six months or such time as the Public Utilities Commission may certify to enable the corporation to establish a municipal service or to obtain some other person to take over transportation within the municipality.

If at any time the assets of the company should be required to be determined, the same will be submitted to the arbitration of three arbitrators under the Arbitration Act.

Councillor Hagan in discussing the by-law, said he thought a twenty-year franchise too long. It was pointed out to him by members of the council, however, that so big an investment as was proposed could hardly be expected to be put through without some guarantee. A transportation company could hardly be expected to purchase new equipment and operate an efficient system without some assurance that sufficient time would be given it to get a reasonable return for the money invested.

Before going into committee to discuss the by-law clause by clause, Mr. Courtenay, legal adviser to Mr. Olsen, was extended the privilege of speaking to the council.

Mr. Courtenay said that he thought that the council should have given some consideration to the Gray Line, in view of the fact that he had only bought out Mr. Harrison a year ago, and on being given a licence to operate in Saanich had purchased new equipment. He wanted to know the attitude of the council in the matter. Mr. Matson had bought out every route in Saanich except the Gray Line, and it would seem only fair that he should want to buy that too.

OUTLINES POSITION

Mr. Courtenay further pointed out that the Gray Line had to pass through the municipality in order to get to Sidney and fulfill the contract with the ferry company to meet all boats. The Gray Line could pick up passengers in the city and disembark them in Saanich but could not pick up passengers in Saanich under the new agreement. There was not room for two companies on the run, and to prohibit the Gray Line to pick up passengers would be a serious handicap to the business.

The franchise should have been put up to the highest bidder. The municipality would have received a substantial sum from the concession.

Reeve Crouch said that the council did not propose to keep dickering. Mr. Olson's offer only concerned one route, the route that he wanted in particular. He did not offer to take over the entire municipal transportation system, taking the good with the bad. The council was only interested in improving the transportation system all over Saanich.

"Did you not receive a letter asking you what price you wanted for your service?" Reeve Crouch asked Mr. Courtenay.

"No," came the answer.

"Not even a verbal offer?" the reeve asked.

"No," was the answer again.

Citizens Will Hunt Carnival King Saturday

A MYSTERIOUS person, well known to the citizens of Victoria, who in his daily walk of life is seen quite frequently in the downtown sections, will assume a new role on Saturday, that of "King of the Carnival." Dressed in his everyday attire he will make himself prominent on Saturday evening for the opening of the Dominion Day celebration.

In his pocket will be an omen of good luck for the person who addresses him correctly. When addressed correctly the king will hand over the prize which is being donated for the event by the Dominion Day celebration committee.

"I understand differently," the reeve retorted.

Councillor Stubbs asked Mr. Courtenay if Mr. Matson had been approached with regard to the sale of the Gray Line.

REPLIES IN NEGATIVE

Mr. Courtenay replied in the negative. Councillor Stubbs expressed the opinion that it seemed to him if they had something to sell they had better take the initiative and sell it, not keep waiting for an offer. "I shouldn't wait for them to come to me," he said.

Councillor Stubbs pointed out to Mr. Courtenay that Mr. Olson knew at the time he bought the bus service from Mr. Harrison that the franchise was only of six months' duration. "I don't think you can blame the council for lack of consideration. We are here to work in the best interests of the municipality as a whole, and want to see the transportation system throughout the municipality improved. We are not interested in one particular route."

Mr. Courtenay, in reply to Councillor Stubbs, with reference to selling the Gray Line, said that there would be nothing to offer for sale except equipment after July 15, which was the date apparently on which the Gray Line franchise expired.

Mr. Olson, before leaving the council chamber, asked if the council would have treated Mr. Harrison in the same way.

The reply of Reeve Crouch was:

"We have got to consider the whole of the municipality."

BAPTISTS OF WORLD VIEW EAST EUROPE

ject "The Baptist World Alliance in Retrospect and Prospect."

It followed an address by Rev. J. H. Rushbrooke of London, England, secretary of the alliance for the eastern hemisphere. Dr. Rushbrooke reviewed the work of the alliance since its formation in 1905 when the first congress was held in London.

IN EASTERN EUROPE

Rev. P. Holst, of Sweden, told of the vigor and rapid growth of the Baptist denomination in Sweden. Soviet Russia was proving a particularly fruitful field for the progress of the church, declared Rev. P. V. Ivanoff-Klissnikoff.

The independence of Poland had given Baptists a new opportunity to evangelize that country, maintained Rev. W. O. Lewis.

Attired in native Rumanian costume, Rev. J. R. Socacin, of Bucharest, delivered a paean of Rumanian national sentiment, and pleaded for assistance in carrying on Baptist work in his country.

Rev. M. Baranyay, of Hungary, complained that post-war adjustments in that territory had given much of Hungary's territory to Rumania and with it many Baptists. The church in his country was weak in consequence and he asked for help.

10,000,000 BAPTISTS

Statistics issued today show the number of Baptists in the world is now nearing the 10,000,000 mark, and of this number more than 8,000,000 are in North America. There are 70,805 Baptist churches in the world, with 56,721 of them located in the Northern Hemisphere. More than 4,000 delegates are attending the congress here.

the first treaty with the ferocious Blackfeet. There were 4,000 redskins decked in their war-paint and fully armed, the meeting taking place at Bow River Crossing, under Chief Crowfoot. A war dance and realistic sham battle, done with all the Indian fervor and gestures, were among the many ceremonies during the meeting, which lasted three weeks and ended peacefully.

Mr. Davis shared in the Fenian Raid in 1866 and in the Riel Rebellion. In 1881 he returned to Ottawa, where he married Miss Ada Arkley, proceeding from there to Winnipeg, where he remained for four years. In 1885 he came to Victoria and for twenty-five years was head carpenter at the Parliament buildings, retiring in 1918.

He is survived by his widow, two sons and two daughters, William Arkley Davis, of Ten-Mile Point; Earl J. Davis, who has been with Pemberton & Sons for over twenty years; Mrs. G. R. Dudley, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Herbert A. Jesse, whose husband is auditor of disbursements for the Provincial Government. There are ten grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from the B.C. Funeral Chapel on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The Dean of Columbia will officiate, assisted by members of the I.O.O.F. Interment will be made in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Immigration and Unemployment in Australian Cities

MELBOURNE, June 25. — (Via Reuter's).—Dealing with criticism to the effect that his Government's migration policy was creating unemployment in Australia, Premier Stanley Bruce, in a speech at Heidelberg, declared the Commonwealth had nothing to do with the number of British immigrants reaching the country. They all came out, he said, under the requisitions of the respective states, though the Commonwealth Government absolutely controlled the proportion of alien immigration in connection with which it had been determined to maintain a status of ninety-eight per cent British stock in Australia.

Rather than waste time in further discussion, Nobile said, when the remaining five of the group had assured him they wished him to go, he left.

Nobile had an incompleted fracture of his left shin, it is learned, and had a contusion of the back. His recovery is not expected before forty days.

AMUNDSEN

There was nothing new as regards Amundsen today, and he was as definitely lost as last Tuesday, when he failed to arrive at Kings Bay from Tromsoe, Norway, as expected. Since then there has not been a word, authentic radio signal, or other indication as to what became of the seaplane and the six men with it.

Despite further scouting expeditions, too, there has been nothing learned of the other two groups of seven and three of the Italia's crew, lost since the Italia crashed on May 25, just a month ago.

Bowen, works manager at Weston shops, to be assistant superintendent of motive power Western lines; J. Lee, chief craftsman motive power department, to be works manager of Weston shops, and A. Lupin, general locomotive foreman, to be assistant works manager, Weston shops.

MR. COTTERELL'S CAREER

A striking example of a steady rise through the ranks is shown in the career of E. D. Cotterell, appointed general superintendent of the Manitoba district. Mr. Cotterell began as callboy in Montreal in 1891. The following year he became an operator, and a year later agent and operator at Crowsnest. In 1913 he became inspector of transportation at Winnipeg, and in 1917 superintendent of car service. In 1924 he was appointed superintendent of transport for Western lines.

Succeeding E. D. Cotterell as superintendent of transportation of Western lines is J. G. Sutherland, who entered the company's service as operator at Field in 1903 and served as train dispatcher at a number of British Columbia and Alberta points until, in 1927, he was appointed inspector of transportation at Winnipeg. He became superintendent at Calgary in 1926.

J. L. Jamieson, appointed superintendent of the Calgary division, to succeed J. G. Sutherland, entered the Canadian Pacific service as an engine wiper in 1896 at Cranbrook. He was later fireman, engineer and trainmaster at Medicine Hat and Ignace, and in 1918 he was made superintendent at Kenora. He has held that position at Vancouver, Edmonton, Lethbridge and Brandon until he was transferred to the Calgary division.

The Least Excitement Made Her Heart Palpitate and Flutter

Mrs. Ambrose Orser, Elginburg, Ont., writes: "I suffered for some time with a bad heart which seemed to be controlled by my nerves. The least little excitement would cause it to flutter and palpitate, and at times I would have real bad spells. I suffered in this way for some time when, one day, I saw advertised, so decided to try them. I had only taken a few boxes when I noticed that I felt better, so I continued taking them and in a short time my heart felt entirely different."

mining and industry, has won him tremendous support in the central sections of the province.

The logic of the Conservative leader's policy of making a thorough survey of the opportunities in British Columbia and of having a stock-taking of potentialities as an essential of a careful and systematic development among scientific lines, is winning strong support.

Dr. Tolmie is hammering home the necessity of such a course by pointing to the depleting stands of British Columbia's famous big timber, which he points out Captain Sid Leary told the Legislature would be gone in a quarter of a century.

The big timber stands have been important contributors to the payrolls of the province.

Formerly the fisheries were very profitable, but the big salmon runs of the past are no more.

MAGIC LANTERN PROSPERITY

In view of these diminishing factors of two of the most important natural resources, he asks, is it not time that British Columbia went about assuring herself of something more substantial than magic lantern prosperity for the future.

At Smithers, the Conservative leader planned to rest at Lake Kathlyn. On Sunday afternoon the whole town and the inhabitants of smaller places for miles around came to the lake to meet him. He refused to discuss politics but consented to speak to them on ideals of British Columbian, Canadian and Imperial citizenship.

VERBAL SHOTS

HAZELTON, B.C., June 25.—An exchange of verbal shots between Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, on the platform, and Dr. H. C. Wrinch, Liberal candidate in Skeena riding, who was in the audience, enlivened the meeting here Saturday night, which was addressed by the Conservative leader, Frank Dockerill, Conservative candidate, and Joshua Hinchliffe, of Victoria.

Dr. Wrinch interjected a denial that under the present Government there had been patronage in employment for public works. Dr. Tolmie went on to say that it was humiliating that a man should have to misrepresent his politics in order to get a job.

"The man who is looking for a job on public works to earn a livelihood for himself and his family is entitled to every consideration," he added.

"He gets it," retorted Dr. Wrinch.

"He certainly will get it when I am running things," rejoined Dr. Tolmie.

Another rumor, added Dr. Tolmie, that was being circulated, was that road work would stop if there was a change of Government. This was not so. Public works and undertakings had to continue along departmental plans. The people of British Columbia could rest assured that after July 18 the Conservative Government would give fair play to every one.

SOCIAL LEGISLATION

Mr. Hinchliffe, quoting from a report of a speech of Premier MacLean, gave flat contradiction to the Premier's statement that no Conservative Government had ever enacted a piece of social legislation. Among the many acts cited were the Factory Act, Workmen's Compensation Act, Deserted Wife Maintenance Act, Juvenile Court Acts, Enfranchisement of Women Act, which was approved on plebiscite by the male voters, and other measures for the improvement of social and working conditions.

OPTION IS SIGNED ON COLISEUM

other American producing centres will pour back into their own country with the assurance that at last they will be able to secure as good salaries as they have been paid by the non-British companies which have previously held control of the market.

"There is no question in my mind that starting the movement here—a place known as a British city—will give a great advertisement to Victoria," said Mr. Gray last evening in commenting on the purchase of the Coliseum by his company.

As it happens, it is just pure chance that Victoria and not Vancouver possesses the first of these British Better Picture theatres, as an effort was made to find a theatre in the latter city, but none was available.

The Coliseum will be taken over within thirty days, and a local manager is to be appointed in the course of the next week or so.

ORGANIZED RECENTLY

The Better Picture Company was organized about September last year, and the advisory board in Vancouver was appointed early last February, the officers being as follows: Honorary president, Archbishop de Pencier; president, Mr. J. O. Gray, LL.D.; first vice-president, Colonel Keen, of the Ryan Construction Company; second vice-president, Mr. Sprott (of the Sprott-Shaw School); members of the executive committee, Dr. Ross, president of the Vancouver Ministerial Association; Rev. Father O'Boyle, Rev. Father Macdonald, Rev. Dr. Williams, Mr. Tod Hunter (president of the Rotary Club).

"Our movement has been launched for the purpose of putting clean, British-made pictures before Britishers everywhere throughout the British Empire," Mr. Gray explained, noting at the same time that British Picture Producers Limited was formed following the passage of the British Cinematograph Films Act, the intention of which was purely patriotic. The British Government had no way of looking ahead to see the millions of pounds that would be lost by the British public in supporting English producing companies launched by film producers, who really believed that the act would enable them to become competitors of the American film producers. American producers could ignore this act in view of the fact that a majority of the big movie theatres were controlled from New York, and consequently New York interests could continue to push American films.

The new British Better Pictures movement proposes to establish its own chain of theatres and give distribution to British films.

"We will show the very best British pictures we can get, and until such time as a sufficient supply of these are available (as they are destined to be once they have a market and can afford to show fine production as well as superior acting and superior plays), we will make up any deficiency only with the very best American films we can find," the president of the company states. "We feel confident that Britishers in the movie business in the States will come back when we offer them the good salaries," he added, remarking that inside of a year it was possible that Canada might see a chain of 400 or 500 picture theatres, at present independent and standing out against monopolization by New York interests, opening themselves to British films.

LOOK FOR FIGHT

"We are looking for a fight, but are not going to be dominated any longer by American films. Half our boys and girls are being educated to American ideals, and it is time we substituted for this our own British ideals, that we occasionally exhibited a picture showing the Union Jack.

To show the industrial value of film producing to the Empire, Mr. Gray stated that in and around Hollywood fully 25,000 people were engaged in some phase of film production, not including thousands of extras. Salaries and wages in 1925 were $49,016,534; cost of materials $33,258,368; paid for contract work $5,368,593, and nearly $6,000,000 in miscellaneous items. With her own theatres, the British Empire could get a fair share of this business with better films.

Goodwill Messengers From Tacoma to Fly Over Victoria Today

Four airplanes, including one of the type that Lindbergh flew across the Atlantic, will be flying over the city this morning on the occasion of the official aerial goodwill visit to Victoria of the Mayor of Tacoma and a group of prominent citizens of the Puget Sound port.

Two of the airplanes will be winging their way over Victoria for the first time, and two will be machines of the B.C. Airways Ltd., the local firm whose guests the Tacoma delegation will be.

The Tacomans will arrive over the city at 11 o'clock in a Buhl air sedan piloted by Mr. Alex. Holden, son of Dr. D. B. Holden, of this city. Mr. Alex Holden was a pilot in the Royal Air Force during the war.

The Buhl air sedan, a biplane, powered with a 200-horsepower Wright "Whirlwind" engine (Lindbergh's choice for his transatlantic flight) will bring Mayor M. G. Tennent of Tacoma, president of the Tennent Steel Casting Company; Mr. S. N. Jackson, past president of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce, and president both of the Tacoma National Bank and of the Tacoma-Oriental Steamship Company; Mr. J. Frank Hickey, president last year of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce and president both of the Tacoma Hotel Company and of the J. F. Hickey Motor Car Company; and Mr. R. M. Jackson, son of Mr. S. N. Jackson.

TO SURVEY CITY

The Tacoma machine will leave for this city at 10 o'clock this morning and will arrive over Victoria about one hour later. After flying over the city for about twenty minutes the plane will land at the B.C. Airways' airport on Lansdowne Road, being escorted there by the Alexander "Eagle Rock" and the Driggs "Dart II" of the local firm.

The Everett machine, a Ryan monoplane, duplicate of the transatlantic plane, also powered with a Wright "Whirlwind" engine, is likewise expected to arrive over the city at 11 o'clock, according to word received here yesterday by Mr. Ernest Eve, president of the B.C. Airways. In it will be Messrs. Scott and Hart, leading Everett business men and aviation promoters.

The visitors will be given an official welcome at the airport by Mayor J. C. Pendray, representatives of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, and by Messrs. Ernest and Cecil Eve, president and business manager, respectively, of the B.C. Airways Ltd.

After the welcoming ceremony the visitors will be guests of the B.C. Airways and the Kiwanis Club at a luncheon at the Empress Hotel. Mayor Tennent and Mr. S. N. Jackson will address the luncheon gathering.

VICTORIA'S POSITION

The goodwill visit of the Tacoma delegation is the first one by air in the history of this city and is significant of the growing importance of Victoria in the scheme of aerial transportation in the Pacific Northwest.

In addition to conveying greetings to Victoria from the citizens of Tacoma, the visitors will make a survey of the aerial transportation facilities existing here. The report they will bring back with them to Tacoma will be of great importance to Victoria, as future aerial business between the two cities will be very largely affected by it. Thanks to the enterprise of the B.C. Airways the report will be of an advantageous nature, for the local firm has transformed the Lansdowne Road property into a first class customs airport suitable for use by any type of commercial airplane plying the air in North America. Furthermore, the visitors will be able to report that gratifying progress is being made here in aerial transportation. The local firm is active, both in the passenger and freight-carrying business and in the field of student flying. Last week three students of the B.C. Airways school went "solo." In addition, much aerial photography is being done here, and this phase of commercial aviation is rapidly proving its worth to business men of the city.

INTERCITY SERVICE

An additional development here on which the Tacomans will be able to report is the progress being made by the B.C. Airways towards the initiation of a daily passenger and freight-carrying service between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle. Both visiting planes today will be powered with the same sort of engine the B.C. Airways will use in the Stout fourteen-passenger all-metal monoplane which will be purchased shortly for the intercity service. The Stout plane will have three Wright "Whirlwinds."

The visit of the Tacoma and Everett machines today may be taken as an indication of the interest flying concerns are taking in the position of Victoria on future air itineraries. Before long, flying experts predict confidently both Washington cities will be linked by regular air service with this city.

The presence of a flight of four different types of airplane on the B.C. Airways airdrome at the same time will prove of great interest to Victorians, and it is expected that a large number of people will go out to the airport this morning to inspect the machines—especially the famous Ryan monoplane.

NEW TRIAL IS FORESHADOWED

Attorneys Are Preparing for Appeal in Goodwin Case to California Supreme Court Again

SEEK TO UPSET SECOND CONVICTION

Probability of a new trial for Philip A. Goodwin is forecast in a letter received by the secretary of the Goodwin defence committee from the Acting British Consul-General at San Francisco. He reports that an extension of time for filing the brief has been obtained, and the necessary formalities will be completed by the end of this week.

The object is to seek reversal of the sentence imposed after the second trial of Goodwin, former Victoria resident, for the murder in Santa Ana Canyon of J. J. Patterson, realty broker, in 1926.

The British Consul-General organized the appeal of Goodwin to the Supreme Court of California, financed by funds collected by the Canadian Legion and the Native Sons of Canada through a committee here. The Supreme Court ordered a new trial. The second trial terminated in reversal of the capital sentence, and substitution of a long term of imprisonment.

A decision is expected towards the end of the year, and Goodwin's attorney expresses confidence that the decision of the second trial will be reversed on appeal.

Mrs. A. Riehl, Burstall, Sask., writes: "I was troubled with very severe headaches, and sometimes I could not do my work.

"One day a friend told me about BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS and advised me to give it a trial. I decided to do so, and after taking a few bottles I found it had done me a world of good, and I haven't had any headaches for a long time now."

At a meeting of the McBride Conservative Club, last evening, the subject of the forthcoming provincial election formed the basis of discussion. Tolmie as leader of the party, and the endorsement of Conservative members duly nominated, was approved.

A meeting in the interests of the candidature of Mr. N. W. Whittaker, Liberal candidate for Saanich, was held last evening in Prospect Lake School. The candidate himself addressed the meeting, together with Mr. Carew Martin and Mrs. J. McN. Beckett.

AUSTRIA REFUSES TO EXTRADITE BELA KUN

VIENNA, June 25.—The Austrian Government definitely refused today to comply with the demand of Hungary that Bela Kun, fiery Communist, who inaugurated a "red terror" in Hungary in 1919, be extradited. The refusal was based on the political character of the charges.

Trial of Bela Kun will begin in Vienna tomorrow on charges that he entered Austria under a false German passport. He has been under arrest since April 28 and police then asserted that he was engaged in a plot to inaugurate a fresh Communistic regime in Hungary under the patronage of Moscow.

Political Events

It was announced yesterday that Mr. Charles R. Bishop, manager of Bishop & Worthington, Ltd., and secretary of the Victoria Liberal Association, has been appointed campaign manager for the Liberal party in the city of Victoria.

The Conservative ladies of Esquimalt will hold an afternoon meeting in the Sailors' Club tomorrow at 3 o'clock. This meeting is called for the purpose of gaining information on subjects of a political character and will be addressed by Mrs. Owen Campbell, of Montreal, a very talented speaker, and by Miss L. Bowron, of this city, who is exceedingly well informed upon political subjects, especially as they relate to women. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon, and there will be a musical programme given.

The Liberals have arranged for a big rally in this city in the interests of the candidates on the evening of July 10. At that gathering Hon. Dugald Donaghy [illegible]

SMART, graceful, luxurious—the New Canadian Oakland Six bears eloquent witness to the beauty and the comfort built into every Body by Fisher. It strikingly illustrates, too, the unmatched ability of Fisher to build supreme value into a motor car body. You will not find a greater motor car value in Canada than the New Canadian Oakland Six. Part of that value is in its chassis, with its big motor, its bull-dog sturdiness and strength—and part in the attractive, comfortable and extremely durable Body by Fisher. That General Motors is able to offer such a car at such a price is still further proof of the beneficent result of Fisher resources, Fisher efficiency and Fisher craftsmanship.

PROVINCIAL PRESERVATION

The policy being preached by Dr. S. F. Tolmie in the course of his present campaign tour is provincial preservation and provincial development. In speaking about the unfair competition to which the farmers of British Columbia are subjected, because dumping duties are not imposed against the surplus agricultural products of the United States, he says: "It is about time that we were running our country for the benefit of the Canadian people and not for the advantage of the Americans." The Conservative Manifesto definitely declares for a policy of encouraging production from British Columbia's farms and factories, of favoring those measures which will lead towards making the province self-sustaining to a far greater degree than at present, of consolidating the Legislature against unfair competition from the outside and by these means securing our population by providing employment at home and thus preventing emigration through lack of means of livelihood here.

After all one of the greatest of British Columbia's problems is to keep her sons and daughters at home. The policies of the Provincial Government during the past eleven years have been contributory to causing many thousands of our best citizens to desert British Columbia and go to the American side. Under any administration which realized the economic advantages which this province should enjoy, with its great resources, there would have been no exodus of our people. Instead of such a realization taxes have been piled up to an extent which has deterred capital investment. Industrial development, as a consequence, has not kept pace with population growth. The Government has canvassed every avenue until it has found over a hundred ways to impose new taxes or increase the old ones, and, in the process, it has inculcated a spirit of unrest and of hope deferred, as well as a spirit which must necessarily mean that confidence in the future is impaired. It is that spirit, coupled with the fact that because of Liberal policies there have not been enough jobs to go round under a Liberal regime, that has led to an exodus of our people. Those who have departed are not to blame; they have been the victims of misgovernment to the extent that they have not been able to secure a livelihood in the land of their birth or of their adoption.

The fluctuating taxation of the Liberal Government, mostly on the upgrade, has frightened capital. It has frightened the individual taxpayer as well. Many have left the province to escape the too burdensome taxation. Instead of encouraging immigration the whole trend of the Liberal Party has been in the nature of discouragement, a discouragement superinduced by the fact that thousands of our own residents have been departing to the American side. It is conditions that have brought about this state of affairs, conditions that still prevail, that Dr. Tolmie and the Conservatives seek to set right. Thy want to be given the opportunity to establish policies which will mean the conservation of British Columbia's resources for the use and development of our own people. By conservation and sane development a situation can be created that will provide employment for all; that will put a period to the exodus of our citizens. By the reduction of taxation, which is promised by the Conservatives, and by the stabilization of taxation new capital will be available for development because capital will know exactly where it stands and what it has to expect in the future. In short, the guiding principle of Dr. Tolmie's policy is "British Columbia for its own people"—provincial preservation and provincial development.

SUPERSTITION

Prophecies by religious sects of dire happenings impending may not shake the fortitude of mankind but undoubtedly they arouse its curiosity. Man is essentially a superstitious animal. The roots of reason have not struck very deep in this year of civilization. The flyer embarked on a transoceanic trip carries a mascot in his pocket. The motorist erects some fantastic ornament on his car to save him from accidents. There are people who still bow three times to the new moon to ward off ill-luck. The fact that false prophecies have been prolific in recent years has not quelled the interest in new forecasts. As The London Evening Standard says, "Human nature reacts very curiously to the prophets and their prophecies, believing with one-half of the mind and disbelieving with the other."

The same newspaper points out that an angelic visitor, with no experience of mankind, might be excused for believing that, if the wish is father to the thought, "the whole human race must be sick of life, so eagerly does it accept any promise of extermination." There is indeed a lively interest in any prophetic promise of a deluge or world-wide volcanic activity, and it is probably explained by the desire for something to break the monotony of the days. The Standard says that if such predictions were put forward with good scientific backing, "most of us would probably yawn over them and leave them half unread." On the other hand, "if some self-consecrated seer, with no visible credentials, tells us that he has supernatural assurance of the world going up in flames on Tuesday week, we all begin to take a pleased interest." It is not a frightened interest, for the portion of disbelief is enough to deaden fear. It is simply a new element of romance that has been injected into the humdrum order of things. There is the "pleasant shadow" of some great event, and none of its "unpleasant consequences."

When their dates for the arrival of calamity fail, the prophets have to revise them. "How they can venture," says The London Morning Post, "after so many disappointments, to pin themselves down to precise days and hours is further evidence of human credulity. No doubt precision gives verisimilitude to the vaticinations; but it also brings such swift discredit. The only refuge is to plead an error in the calculations; but to admit a liability to error is fatal to the reputation of a seer. It will not, however, prevent the next seer from commanding attention; for behind the most obdurate doubt there always lurks the reflection, 'suppose it should be true?' The ordered processes of Nature are in themselves such a miracle that the interruption of them would not be more so. As Ruskin exclaimed, 'it is just what I have always been expecting.'" Another commentator on prophecies is The Londoner who, writing in The London Evening News, says: "When I consider all these prophecies, I find the book of past times comfortable. It tells me that the prophets have been at their work for thousands of years, that very few of them have, shall I say, picked a winner."

A group of American college professors, an Episcopal bishop, an American Senator, and editor, an author and a literary critic have been voting on the question of who are the twelve greatest men or women now living. The result with the number of votes received by each is as follows: Mr. T. A. Edison (9), Signor Mussolini (7), Professor Albert Einstein (6), Mr. G. B. Shaw (5), Mr. Henry Ford (5), M. Paderewski (5), Mr. Rudyard Kipling (5), Madame Curie (4), M. Clemenceau (4), Miss Jane Adams (4), Mr. Orville Wright (4) and Senatore Marconi (3). If none of the foregoing were born great, some at least have fulfilled Shakespeare's dictum in having achieved greatness—or in having greatness thrust upon them.

Dr. W. H. Sutherland, the Minister of Public Works, says the Liberal Government in British Columbia during the last ten years spent $92,000 annually less than the former Conservative administration on roads. His own public accounts, as a correspondent points out, show, in comparison with the public accounts when the Conservatives were in office, that Liberal expenditure on roads was at the rate of $781,797.15 per annum more than the Conservatives spent. Members of the Government appear to be resorting to subterfuge to cover up the tracks of their spendthrift zeal.

In his address to his constituents on September 1, 1916, Mr. A. M. Manson, now Attorney-General, said: "We are unqualifiedly pledged to abolish the patronage system." When chosen for office he proceeded to build up a Political Machine for the distribution of patronage that has been unequalled in its partisanship in the history of Canada. This affords another instance of the strength of the promises and the principles of the present Government.

BEAM WIRELESS

The establishment of beam wireless communication between Canada and Australia which became effective with the formal exchange of official greetings recently forges another and important link between two great units of the British Empire. Canada and Australia, though widely separated, have very much in common, as regards both their external and domestic problems, and they have been drawn into closer commercial intercourse in recent years through mutual concessions. The beam wireless affords to both countries a means of rapid communication which cannot but be of service, and may, under special conditions, be of the utmost value. Apart from this aspect of yesterday's achievement, the inauguration was in itself noteworthy for the almost incredible speed with which the messages between the Governor-General of Canada, the Governor of Australia, Premier King, various state governors, and others, were exchanged. The messages themselves in form and spirit expressed the significance which attaches to so marked a forward step in the annihilation of time and distance.—Montreal Gazette.

BIRCH TREE

What do the marks on the birch tree say?
Scrips of black on the silver grey?
Dashes and dots
And queer little blots
Scrawled in a whimsical fairy way.

I think it's the secret poetry
Of the tall white Dryad who lives in the tree;
Short and long,
A strange little song.
Verse like the wind and the water—"free."

She will publish it when the Spring comes round,
In a clean, green fluttering leaflet bound;
A song you can hear
If you have the ear,
In the whispery, shivery, quivery sound.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

You remember the fable about the man who listened to the advice of everybody and attempted to follow the advice of everybody, with disastrous results. We do not know what the results would be if everybody tried to follow the advice of the expert dieticians who write for the newspapers, but we do know that if we attempted to follow the advice of the experts life would hardly be worth living.

For example, we have been warned not to eat new potatoes. Now would it really be worth while eating to live if we were not permitted to eat potatoes, and particularly to eat new potatoes? Of course a mess of new potatoes dug out of the dry soil of the sovereign State of California might not prove a very palatable dish, but is there any vegetable dug fresh out of the soil of British Columbia that provides a sweeter fragrance to the nostrils or is more tempting to the palate than a dish of new potatoes? Therefore, starch or no starch, we shall continue to eat new potatoes and to eat new potatoes after they become old potatoes, as long as potatoes are procurable either in our own back yard, in the shops of the city, or in the public market.

The strawberries of Saanich, of course, by reason of their size, shape, color or texture, look like a dainty dish to set before a king or anybody of lower degree, but, compared with potatoes, strawberries are ephemeral things, and we shall eat them as long as the growers provide them, thus fulfilling the expert dietetic injunction to eat fruit and enjoy good health. Strawberries are the first and the chief of the berry tribe, and it is our patriotic duty and our pleasure to eat them as well as the loganberries, the raspberries and the blackberries which follow immediately after them in preference to the widely and persistently advertised products of more southern climes, which are picked when green and matured (not ripened) in warehouses and stores.

Then when the days of the members of the berry family are done, the apples, the cherries, the plums and the peaches will be ready for the table. Even now when the days of some of the berries are not done, the yellow transparent apples are taking form and color and will soon be leading the alluring procession of the finest fruits grown in any part of the world. If it is necessary to eat fruit to establish and maintain good health, there is fruit in almost endless variety grown either at our own doors or in the immediate neighborhood, and there is no necessity for going to Washington, Oregon, California or the South Sea Islands to supply our wants. If you are tempted to listen to the advice and follow the counsel of specially subsidized dieticians who proclaim the healing qualities of foreign fruits, stop listening for a moment and think over this: That Nature is not a hard and unfeeling step-mother, but a wise and generous mother who makes ample provision for the needs of her children, and that the provision made by Nature is best suited to the needs of her chidrren not only in this part of the world, but in all other parts of the world. Therefore oranges and lemons, pineapples and bananas, are all very well in their place, but their natural place is not in this northern climate. The fruits that are produced in abundance in this part of the world are best adapted to the needs of this part of the world. If it is necessary to eat plenty of fruit to meet the requirements of Nature and to insure sound health, there is plenty of good fruit procurable here to meet all requirements.

Then there is another and very important aspect to this matter. That is the patriotic aspect. Even the most ardent free trader sometimes forgets or sinks his principles and tells us that it is our duty to patronize home industries, without adding his favorite saving clause, "all other things being equal." In the case of our fruit-growing industry, all other things are very unequal, for all foreign markets for this industry are closed and strictly reserved for native producers. Under the circumstances, as our strawberry growers have found out to their cost during the present season, the home market is the only market that can be depended upon for the salvation of the life of their industry. Therefore it is our patriotic duty to restrict our health-giving diet as far as possible to home-grown vegetables and fruits. If we do that we shall not only enjoy robust health, but be blessed with a clear conscience.

TILLICUMS SUSPENSION

Sporting Editor, Colonist, Victoria, B.C.

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the local board of the A.A.U., represented by the following delegates, A. H. Manson, president; W. Bird, vice-president, W. McQuire, secretary; Dan O'Sullivan, J.B.A.A., and J. McCahill, V.I.A.A., it was moved by the V.I.A.A. and seconded by the J.B.A.A. that the Tillicum Athletic Club be suspended from the A.A.U. on account of staging separately amateur and professional boxing tournaments.

We would like to draw to the notice of the public that the action taken by the local board was presented by two rival clubs, at a very poorly attended meeting, and upheld in their favor. At the present time the Tillicum Athletic Club is the premier organization in this city encouraging all branches of sport, not only boxing, and have during its affiliation with the A.A.U. taken out more amateur cards for the club than all the rest of the clubs put together. We think the action taken by the officials was acted upon rather hurriedly and a few points overlooked, as whatever power they have over the individual, they have not the power to suspend the Tillicum Athletic Club, an organized incorporated society, and we trust they will acknowledge their mistake, as this point was brought to their notice prior to the meeting.

We have learned and found that affiliation with the A.A.U. spells trouble, which accounts for some of the leading branches of sport not recognizing the A.A.U. We would suggest that the officials governing amateur sport act fair and above board; they may then accomplish something for the amateur. We will refer to one of many wrongs which the officials do not wish to see, and the public who are interested in the amateur will know when we refer to the manner in which some cases are handled when we mention that of Danny Pastre and Frank Neel. When one individual can suspend or allow privileges, as in the above case, it is quite time that the president of the B. C. branch of the A.A.U and the local board resigned and allow a body of men who are capable of handling the Island affairs take over their positions.

According to the press, the local board must again refer their troubles to Vancouver and ask Vancouver what action they must take regarding the lacrosse teams, and also information regarding the boxing held under the 16th Scottish. Wake up, local board of the A.A.U. and take care of your own affairs on the Island and leave Vancouver out of it; asking information in Vancouver is the cause of the present trouble. In closing, we wish to make it perfectly clear that the Tillicum Athletic Club is an incorporated society (Dominion charter), and is endeavoring to encourage all branches of sport, not only boxing, and will continue to do so. Instead of the club being affiliated with the A.A.U., we will carry on in the same manner as the rest of the clubs, without affiliation.

G. A. HEINEKEY,
President.
F. B. RICHARDSON,
Secretary.
Tillicum Athletic Club.

GOATS AND DEER

Sir,—In last Sunday's Colonist there is a letter by a person named Ellison full of wonderful sketches of fancy. His letter deals with the goat as a game animal to replace our fast vanishing deer, according to his viewpoint.

The deer on Vancouver Island has not gone from our hills by any means. I admit there is a certain amount vanishing, due to the deer becoming educated. They seem to know the dates of the open season. They are wonderfully intelligent. Once I thought that they were a fool animal. That was long ago. Now in the more or less settled areas we only get the fool deer. The moron, so to speak.

Due to the Buck Law, deer are on the increase. A year ago on May 24, accompanied by my wife, in a walk through the woods, never over a mile from our cabin, we counted forty-five deer and two bear. This was before the fawns were moving, and we had no field glasses to help out. I might further add that when the hunting season came in I did not get a deer in that season. Nor were there many got by the scores of other hunters, although the signs of them were all over the place. Believe me, they are wise.

Mr. Ellison says a hunter shot eighty elk at one time on Vancouver Island. This is not so. The facts are bad enough. A man shot fourteen elk—not eighty—at one time. As I was writing this, one of the men who helped haul these elk out with his oxen came into my office and confirmed this statement. (Names, dates and locality if needed.) For the love of Mike, let these writers get somewhere nearer the truth so we will know what to believe.

Deer are not vanishing except through their increased wisdom. Ask the farmer around the settlements. The Buck Law will preserve them even if some does are shot.

The game board was considering partially opening the season for does. (A sure sign that deer were decreasing.) This would be a serious and backward move. Our game board could do well by following the footsteps of Pennsylvania. This state leads all states and provinces in game conservation and propagation.

There are too many goats roaming the hillsides now potting around every moving thing. There are too many hunters killed and the matter taken as a casual accident. There must be a prosecution following each case. In most cases it is more serious to be caught shooting a hen pheasant out of season than a human being. Then there is a maudlin sentiment if a case does come up which tends to promote carelessness. There should be some intermediate punishment between "Scot free" and long jail sentences for such cases.

HELPING THE FOREIGNER

Sir,—One hears a great deal nowadays about the necessity of getting people to settle on the land; to clear away the jungle and make Canada's waste places productive. In addition attention is drawn to all the Government does to encourage immigration and to the assistance it renders to incoming settlers and to those already on the land.

It seems to me distinctly pertinent to ask what the Government does to help those who have actually settled on the land and are doing their utmost to build up homes in the wilderness, more especially those who—like myself—have done it without any Government assistance whatever. What does the Government do for us? Does it help us by every means in its power? Does it encourage and foster home industries? Does it assist us to dispose of our produce and protect us against unfair and overwhelming foreign competition?

Let the struggling strawberry grower of British Columbia answer these questions! No, it does nothing! On the contrary, it disregards its own nationals entirely, and actively assists the foreigner to dump his surplus products on the Canadian market. It deliberately, in spite of protests, opens wide the door to let in a flood of American fruit, utterly swamping our chief sale area; it does its best to ruin the British Columbia strawberry grower and has let hundreds of thousands of dollars of Canadian money cross the border, and be lost to our fellow countrymen, and to their industries. A huge sum that would have been spent in British Columbia has taken to itself wings and flitted across the forty-ninth parallel. That is the strawberry grower's answer to the aforementioned pertinent questions.

Some time ago, my bank manager sent me a questionnaire issued by Ottawa, asking me to give any details I could of my work and progress on the land, with a view to encouraging Old Country people to come and do likewise, egged on by promises of all the good things that would be showered on them if they were "wet" enough to believe what they were told. Seeing that I was a returned man who had got nothing from the Government (except a lot of promises that were never kept) and having seen during seven years how much dependence could be placed on governmental help for the land worker, I sent a blistering reply to the effect that I had no faith whatever in Ottawa doing anything tangible for anyone connected with the land (unless its interests in vote-catching lay the same way), that nothing had been done for me; and that any incomer who placed any reliance in real governmental assistance would be rudely disillusioned. And this year of grace thoroughly confirms my old opinions and attitude.

CONSERVATIVE NOMINATIONS

Sir,—I hope that you will do me the favor of correcting the report which appeared in The Colonist of the meeting which was held in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on Monday.

The statement that I announced at the close of the meeting that if I did not secure a nomination I would run as an Independent Conservative is incorrect. I stated clearly in reply to a question that I would not permit my name to go before the Conservative convention.

Earlier in the meeting, when the uproar was at its height, I stated that as supporters of the former city members had frequently stated that the former members would run as Independents if they failed to secure nominations, I would go before the convention on the same terms. I was then informed that this story was false and that it had been circulated by Liberals.

As proof of the fact that the suggestion was not the work of Liberals, I refer those interested to the report of the annual meeting of the McBride Club, in The Colonist of Thursday, October 13, which may be found in the public library. At that meeting this suggestion, which had been circulated for months, was voiced by Hon. T. G. Coventry. My statement on that occasion is evidence in regard to the stand that I have taken as a Conservative.

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaelis

FRUITAGE

Though happiness may wax and wane,
Still will one steadfast flame remain
For him who makes a gallant fight
Against the forces of the night.

The man who with undaunted zest
Brings forth his loftiest and his best
Against all error, wrong and sin,
Regardless of the odds, must win.

For he who freely shares with all
His gifts (though they be great or small)
Will find, though selfish gladness goes,
A deeper joy the days disclose.

And in his darkest hours he learns
How every kindly thought returns;
He plucks in times of sorest need

Border Question To Be Adjudged by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The United States has asked the Supreme Court to pass on the right of persons living in Canada and working in the United States to cross the border without presenting visaed passports.

The Government emphasized in its petition for review the importance of the controversy, stressing the number of persons who will be effected by the outcome.

The question reached the Federal District Court for Eastern New York, which held that Mary Cook and Antonio Danielson, British subjects, both residing in Canada, were immigrants who must have passports to cross the border when entering this country daily for work.

The Circuit Court of Appeals took a contrary view, holding that Canadians working in this country and returning to their homes in Canada at night are "nonimmigrants," under the immigration law of 1924, and that under the Jay treaty of 1794 they were privileged to cross and recross the border without passports for purposes of business.

GOLDEN JUBILEE IS CELEBRATED

Brackman-Ker Milling Company Marks Fifty Years of Existence With Gathering of Executive Officers

SKETCH OF HISTORY GIVEN DELEGATES

Opening sessions of the annual conference of the officers of the Brackman-Ker Milling Company and the Western Canada Flour Mills Company were held yesterday at the Empress Hotel. This year's meeting was held in this city to permit the two companies to participate in the celebration of the golden jubilee anniversary of the Brackman-Ker Company, which has just completed fifty years in business.

A feature of the morning meeting was an address by Mr. Frank Gibbs, general manager, who gave a graphic review of the development of the company's interests from the days of its inception in 1878 down to the present day.

Mr. D. B. Hanna, the president, paid tribute to the founders of the Brackman-Ker Company, who, by their industry, had shown great faith in Canada. Their vision of the future was shared with that of the other great pioneers, who had builded better than they knew when they constructed the Canadian Pacific Railway, and forged the link between British Columbia and the other provinces to the east.

Other addresses of interest reviewing their long association with the company were made by Mr. R. H. B. Ker, director, and by Mr. Walter Ker, who was associated with the company in the early days of its history.

The conference continues its sessions today.

Among those who accompanied Mr. Hanna from the East are: Messrs. Joseph Wright and R. G. O Thomson, directors; Mr. J. J. Page, general manager; Mr. D. J. Walker, Eastern manager; Mr. R. A. Pridham, treasurer; Mr. A. McQuarrie, advertising manager, all of Toronto; Mr. J. W. Horn, assistant general manager, Winnipeg; Mr. G. H. Kelly, mechanical superintendent, Winnipeg; Messrs. D. M. Fraser and R. J. Marriott, branch managers at Saint John, N.B., and Calgary, respectively, and Mr. J. A. C. Kemp, Toronto manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Members of the Brackman-Ker organization in attendance at the meetings yesterday were: Messrs. Frank Gibbs, manager for British Columbia; H. M. Streight, superintendent of Mainland branches, New Westminster; H. A. Leigh, manager of Victoria branch; F. A. Galbraith, manager, Vancouver; R. Scragg, assistant manager, New Westminster; S. H. Catt, manager, Nanaimo; M. S. Stephens, manager, Courtenay; G. A. Brown, manager, Nelson; M. McLachlan, Prince Rupert, and A. Miller, chief accountant, Victoria.

Senator Barnard, Mr. R. H. B. Ker and Mr. Frederick Nation also attended the sessions yesterday.

STOWAWAYS SENT TO JAIL

JERVIS BAY TROUBLE-MAKERS ARE HAILED INTO POLICE COURT

Guard of Marines Is Placed Over Unofficial Passengers—Concert Interrupted

COLOMBO, Ceylon, June 25.—Eight of the stowaways who gave so much trouble for several days aboard the liner Jervis Bay, were before the police court today charged with concealment as stowaways, refusing to obey orders and arson. They were sentenced to five and one-half months' imprisonment on the various counts, but were exonerated on the charge of arson.

COLOMBO, Ceylon, June 25.—The trouble aboard the liner Jervis Bay, whose call for help last week gripped the maritime world, appears to have been caused solely by eight stowaways, whose leader was a Cuban. Passengers and officers of the ship, which reached port this morning, declared that none of the steamer's crew was involved.

The stowaways were discovered after the vessel left Freemantle, Australia. They were given light work, but resented discipline and became abusive, swaggering around the decks, insulting passengers. Consequently they were placed below hatches and their compartment barricaded from the rest of the ship.

One night the stowaways broke loose and invaded the saloon, where a concert was in progress. When they insulted the audience, the mate ordered them away and a fight followed. Several of them, passengers said, ran amok along the decks, swearing and shouting, whereupon the entire eight were captured and battened down under hatches, a guard being placed over them. To add to the confusion, the stowaways threw everything that they could lay their hands on overboard and set fire to their mattresses. The crew of the Jervis Bay then flooded them with hose pipes and they were put on short rations.

No further trouble was experienced after the arrival of an armed guard from the British ship Slavol.

An inquiry into the trouble was started today under the Board of Trade regulations.

LONDON, June 25.—The mystery respecting the trouble on the steamer Jervis Bay, of Ceylon, was solved by the Admiralty today. It was officially announced that an armed guard from H.M.S. Slavol boarded the Jervis Bay at midnight Saturday. The officer in command of the marines reported that the stowaways who had been giving trouble were safely confined and that Captain Daniels, of the liner, was satisfied that the assistance of a warship was no longer required.

CIVIL SERVICE MEASURE CARRIED

By-Law Is to Be Redrafted and Submitted Afresh After Amendments Are Introduced

At the City Council last evening, the report of the civic service committee, dated February 29, was proceeded with in committee of the whole, and was approved, a by-law to be drafted accordingly.

Alderman Mara wished to allow the report to stand over in the absence of Alderman Clearihue, who had pronounced views on the matter, and also in the absence of Alderman Brown, who entered the chamber late.

Alderman Marchant was agreeable to let it stand, but did not wish it put over month after month.

The motion of Alderman Mara to postpone action was defeated, and the council went into committee to consider it.

During the discussion of the report, Alderman Brown stated that he was strongly in favor of the head of a department being required to report upon an employee whom it was proposed to dismiss. The council might not be prepared to take the advice in the end, but the head of the department should express his views.

He moved in this direction, but the motion was lost on a vote of five to four, with Aldermen Brown, Woodward, Adam and Mara supporting the motion.

The mayor said he felt that the head of the committee concerned, and the head of the department, would be in practice always asked for an opinion before the council acted.

The clause providing for a city commissioner or city comptroller was struck out.

The by-law was then ordered to be redrafted, containing a schedule of annual increases in pay to employees of the city to be incorporated therein.

ALBERTA FACES HEAVY LOSSES

CALGARY, Alta., June 25.—The outlook with regard to hog cholera in Central and Southern Alberta grows more serious hourly.

Reports coming from Rockyford and Delacour report the disease there, while there is grave suspicion that herds at points all over the country are infected.

In the herd of several hundred head, owned by H Singh, a Hindu, near Turner Siding, south of Calgary, slaughter has already commenced. Dominion veterinary officers declare that possibly half of this herd will have to be slaughtered.

Compensation at the rate of not more than $15 a head for grade and $50 for purebred animals, is being paid to the owners by the Dominion Government.

TRAGIC ACCIDENT ENDS IN DEATH

Son of Colonel T. F. Young, of this City, Dies in Liverpool Following Mishap

Details of a tragic accident which resulted in the death of Lieut.-Colonel F. W. Baker Young, eldest son of Col. T. F. Young, of 2130 Central Avenue, Victoria, were received by the relatives here yesterday, nearly a fortnight after receipt of the brief cablegram which informed them of the melancholy occurrence. The late Colonel F. W. Baker Young spent about a fortnight in Victoria seven years ago, during his stay addressing the Victoria Medical Society at one of its meetings, and being given a very favorable reception. The father and two sisters live in Victoria, and two brothers, Mr. Thomas Young, at one time a teacher at the University School, Mt. Tolmie, and Mr. James Young, were also well known in the city as well as up-Island, and their names are on the Duncan war memorial, consequently the sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved relatives.

The late Colonel F. W. Baker Young lost his life in a strange accident, while taking part in a game with brother officers at the Park Hotel, Preston.

As officer in command of 164th Field Ambulance of the West Lancashire Division (Territorial Army) he had attended a dinner, at which Lord Derby was present, and, as he and his friends were about to retire to their rooms, "flying somersaults" were proposed in the hall. In this game the player performing the somersault bends down and puts his hands through his legs, a companion grasping his wrists and, lifting the player from the ground, causing him to turn a somersault and land on his feet. When Colonel Baker Young's turn came he was lifted, in the usual way, on his feet, but when about four feet from the ground slipped from his companion's hands and fell on the back of his head on the stone floor. Despite every effort to revive him he never regained consciousness, and died shortly after the arrival of a doctor.

"Colonel Baker Young had a large practice in Liverpool. He had served over twenty years in the Territorial Army, earning the 'Territorial decoration for length of service, and was," a Liverpool paper comments, "one of the most popular and respected officers in the 55th Division." On the reorganization of the Territorial Army early in 1920 he was appointed major and second in command of the 1st West Lancashire Field Ambulance, with which he served until the unit was merged in the 164th West Lancashire Field Ambulance. To this he was transferred as second in command with the rank of major, and in 1925 assumed command.

Succeeding his father in general practice in Bootle some time before 1914, after the war he gradually relinquished his general practice and became a specialist in dermatology.

HORNSBY DROPS BELOW .400 MARK

Leader of "Big Six" Fails to Connect for Hit—Cobb and Ruth in Tie

After keeping his batting average above the 400 mark for sixteen consecutive games, Rogers Hornsby dropped below that mark today, while the Braves were taking a beating from Brooklyn by 9 to 3. The "Rajah" failed to get a hit in three times at bat and dropped down to .395. This is good enough to keep him well in the lead in the "Big Six" standing.

Ty Cobb, holder of third place, got only one hit in three tries as the Athletics dropped a double-header to the Senators and went into a tie with Babe Ruth, who played only in an exhibition game. Paul Waner, the second place man in the big six, also was idle and his average remained stationary at .369.

Frank Frisch got only one hit in five times at bat and dropped below the .300 mark. However, he still is ten points above Harry Heilmann, occupant of the big six cellar, whose two hits in five tries yesterday brought his average up to .288.

The standing to date:

Hornsby, Braves	58	195	46	77	.395

No Commission—Real estate agents in future will receive no commission for the sale of Saanich reverted land. A decision to this effect was made at last night's meeting of the council. It was pointed out by the clerk that most of the work in connection with the selling of the land was done at the municipal hall, so that the commission was hardly justified.

Irrigation—Owing to the lack of water pressure in the high levels of the Gordon Head district, there was practically no domestic supply during the day, Councillor Watson informed the Saanich council last night. The Water Regulation By-law was amended so as to prohibit irrigation between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Councillor Watson said he understood that the city could not give any more pressure owing to heavy consumption at the present time. The engineer reported the pressure had been below 100 pounds.

Change Engineers—Changes in the engineering staff of the Provincial Public Works Department were announced Monday. Mr. Harry Anderson moves from Merritt, in the Yale district, to Chilliwack, where he will have charge of the Delta district. Major H. L. Swan, now at Chilliwack, will replace Mr. Anderson at Merritt. Both engineers are well known in their profession, Mr. Anderson having carried out important work in the Yale district under District Engineer Major Taylor, while Major Swan was formerly stationed on the Fraser Canyon Highway during its construction.

RETIRING SPEAKER DECLINES PEERAGE

LONDON, June 25.—Rt. Hon. John H. Whitley, who retired last week from the Speakership of the House of Commons, has intimated to the Government that for personal reasons he does not desire to accept the peerage which it is customary to confer upon Speakers on their retirement.

His refusal breaks a precedent which has been maintained for more than 120 years. Out of ten Speakers of the House of Commons who relinquished office since 1802, seven have been created viscounts.

It is believed in Parliamentary circles, however, that the Order of Merit will be conferred on Whitley. Meanwhile it is announ that the King has conferr knighthood upon Lieut.-Col. R Verney, secretary to the Speak

Weddings

PEDNEAULT—PAINTER

A pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Victoria West, on Wednesday evening, June 20, at 7:30 o'clock when Rev. Father Wood united in marriage Kathleen Lillian Marie Painter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Painter, Jr., and Mr. Louis Philip Pedneault, second son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Pedneault. The church was beautifully decorated by girl friends of the bride. The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Alfred Wiggs, entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Mair. She looked charming in an imported sleeveless gown of white georgette over white satin trimmed with silk lace and tiers of tiny frills, and an embroidered net veil with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Miss Olivine Pedneault, as bridesmaid, was charmingly gowned in pale yellow chiffon over yellow satin with a large picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. Baby Jean Dobie made a dainty flower girl, dressed in rose taffeta and little Josephine Dobie, as train bearer, wore a dainty frock of white crepe de Chine. Mr. Jasper Pedneault assisted the groom. The ushers were: Messrs. Alphonse Pedneault, Adolphis Pedneault and Gerald Fagan. During the signing of the register Mr. Moir sang "Ave Maria."

Following the service a reception was held at the home of the groom where the bride and groom received the guests under a beautifully decorated arch. They were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, who was gowned in black satin, and the groom's mother, who wore a gown of fawn-colored satin trimmed with silk lace. The bride's table, decorated with sweet peas, tulle and tall pink and white candles, was centred with a four-tier bridal cake. Mrs. A. E. Ormond poured the tea. The girl friends of the bride, assisted with the refreshments. The many beautiful wedding gifts showed the esteem in which the young couple are held.

The bride and groom left by motor for a tour of the Island and the Sound cities, the bride wearing a traveling suit of light Kasha cloth and a small model hat in the same tones. On their return they will reside in Victoria.

BREEHN—POIRIER

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the United Church, Victoria West, when Miss Marguerite Poirier, eldest daughter of Mrs. Alice Poirier, became the bride of Mr. Harry Breehn, youngest son of Mr. Fred Breehn. The bride entered the church on the arm of her mother, to the strains of the Wedding March. She made a charming picture in her gown of white taffeta, her bridal veil falling in soft folds over her gown. Her bouquet was of Ophelia roses, carnations and maidenhair fern. She was attended by Miss Beatrice May Poirier, her sister, and Miss Mabel Gertrude Poirier, her cousin. Each wore a dainty frock of apple green crepe de Chine trimmed with silver lace, and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Dorothy White was a dainty flower girl in peach crepe de Chine. Mr. Claude Cook supported the groom. Refreshments were served at the home of the bride's mother after the service, and later the young couple left on the boat for Vancouver, amid a shower of good wishes. They received many beautiful wedding gifts. On their return to Victoria they will reside at 416 Jessie Street.

Cranleigh School Has Tennis Party

A large party of parents and friends of the Cranleigh House School witnessed on Thursday afternoon some very fine tennis matches, the occasion being the finals of the annual school tournaments.

Especially close and hard was the game between Genge and Bushby for the senior cup. After three very closely contested sets, Bushby was declared the winner, though most of the games went to many deuces.

Beck played a safe and steady game to win the junior cup from Leech, who made a bold bid for the honors.

In a three-cornered match the visitors, Messrs. Leech and Hankey, were far too good for the masters, who in their turn defeated the boys.

The doubles tournament was won by Mr. Milton and Lindsay, with Bushby and J. Bower runners up.

After tea, friendly tennis was enjoyed by boys and visitors, bringing the season to a close.

Following are the results:

Senior Cup—1, Bushby; 2, Genge; 3, Lindsay.

Junior Cup—1, Beck; 2, Leech; 3, Turner.

Doubles — 1, Lindsay and Mr. Milton; 2, Bushby and J. Bower; 3, Genge and Senkler.

Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island

SOUTH SAANICH

The South Saanich Women's Institute held its regular business meeting in Temperance Hall on Thursday evening, when there was a fair attendance and Mrs. H. Lawrie presided. The financial statement from the Islands District Women's Institute Board regarding the recently successful conference at Duncan was received. It was decided to send strawberries to the Solarium again during the season. Plans were discussed for the annual entertainment of the girls' club and the matter will be left until later on in the season. The Women's Institute will hold a picnic at some local beach on Saturday, August 4, when a sports programme will be held. Final arrangements for this will be made at the next meeting. The annual excursion was discussed but no plans were made. It is hoped to have Miss McLennigan, of the home economics department, to speak at the next regular meeting on July 19. Following the meeting refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

WEST SAANICH

A most enjoyable band concert and dance was given by the Shriners' Band in the hall on Friday evening, under the auspices of the West Saanich Women's Institute. The hall was very beautifully decorated with streamers and hanging baskets of flowers by Mrs. T. Haddon. Supper was served by Mrs. Haddon, Mrs. Lacousiere, Mrs. T. Peden, Mrs. H. Creed and Mrs. Rochon; ice cream Mrs. R. J. Freeland and Mrs. Ward; dining-room, Mrs. H. Creed; box office, Mr. R. J. Freeland and Mr. T. Haddon. The Institute wish to thank the band members for their kindness in giving the entertainment, which netted a considerable sum for the piano fund.

LAKE HILL PICNIC

The members of Lake Hill Community Centre will hold a picnic on July 2 at the Gorge, and a cordial invitation to attend is extended to all friends of the Centre. The social committee has drawn up an excellent programme of games, races and water sports, which will insure a jolly time for everyone. Proceedings will commence at 2:30 o'clock and continue into the evening.

Australia has turned down the plan used in England of a quota basis in regard to the films from other countries and those produced in Great Britain.

Your Home and You

By BETSY CALLISTER

RIBBON cake is made by making layers of different colors and putting them together in the same cake and marble cake is made by using two or three or even four different colors for the batter and putting them in irregular arrangement in a deep cake pan.

A good plan in making either sort of cake is to make a good plain cake batter of the sort that you know will come out right. In case you are going to make a three-layer ribbon cake, divide the batter into three approximately equal parts, using two extra bowls for this purpose. Now add a little melted chocolate to one batch of batter—just enough to give it a light chocolate color, leave one portion plain and add a little rose-colored coloring matter to the third. This may be bought at the grocery and is quite harmless.

In making the marble cake you may use a fourth batch, using yellow coloring in this. Or you may be satisfied merely with a two-tone effect, using the plain cake batter and some colored with chocolate. After the pan has been greased fill in the batter with a dessert spoon. Use a foundation of the plain color fairly well spread out and then add a little more of the plain batter at one end and in the centre, so the streak will be irregular. Then, using a clean spoon, put in some of another tint—taking care not to mix the two batters in the pan. Pile this batter up a little here and there and so on, until the batters have all been used and the tin is sufficiently full.

In making layer cakes it is sometimes a good plan to wait until the last minute before putting the layers together and then to use some nice "gooey" filling, of the sort that would soak in if used too long in advance. One such filling is made by beating a quarter of a pint of whipping cream—half a small bottle—and then adding a little finely sieved powdered sugar and some grated cocoanut.

This week's help consists of directions for making a number of attractive and amusing place cards for luncheons or dinners. Please send me your stamped, self-addressed envelope and I will send them to you at once.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

For those women who like the extreme, and can wear it well, we show this individual frock of flowered taffeta. The material itself is worthy of mention, for it features a bright figure on a navy blue background, and is of a particularly crisp yet pliable taffeta.

The frock has an apron front edged with a pleated ruffle, which ties in a large bow, resembling a bustle in the back.

The collar, of white organdie, comes to a deep point in back, and it, too, is edged with a pleated ruffle, this time of organdie. It closes in a V in front and is finished with a knotted tie.

"Matric" Banquet

The matriculation students of the Victoria High School will hold their closing banquet and dance Friday evening, and it is expected that it will be quite a gay affair with some two hundred students and their friends in attendance. The energetic committees in charge of the function have been working strenuously for the past two weeks in order that everyone may be assured of a perfectly enjoyable evening. It is planned to have the spacious gymnasium beautifully decorated for the occasion with flags, colored lights, and bunting. The school colors and yellow and black will be very much in evidence. Prior to the dance the matriculation students will assemble in the banquet hall for the "farewell" supper, after which all will adjourn to the gymnasium, where they will become hosts to their friends and parents. Dancing will commence at 8:30 o'clock, and will continue until midnight. For the occasion a popular orchestra has been engaged, so that first class music is assured. The student body of the High School has extended a cordial invitation to all ex-students of the school, and it is to be hoped that a goodly number will take this opportunity to renew their acquaintance with the old school. All ex-students wishing tickets for the dance may secure them by phoning the school, 1589.

The Luckiest Lady

By RUBY M. AYRES

XXXII—"I CAN'T EXPLAIN!"

"Plaster Saint!" Dolly sneered. She puffed at her cigarette savagely for a moment, then her manner changed.

"Be a dear and help me," she whispered. "It's really dreadfully urgent. I don't know what I shall do if you refuse. I'm in an awful mess. Be a pal, Biddy darling! I'll never ask you again, and I'll pay you back—honestly I will."

"How can you? It's such a lot of money! Where will you get it from?"

"I'm bound to win some day. Renny says that the luck always changes, sooner or later."

"Renny Martin is a hateful man."

"That's what you think! I like him, and, anyway, that's not the question. Biddy—will you do this for me?"

"I can't."

"You can if you like—you know you can. We've always been such good friends, and I wouldn't ask you if I wasn't in such a dreadful mess." She rose and came closer to the bed. "Biddy, I beg of you!"

"I can't."

"You mean that you won't?"

"I won't tell Marna a lie to get it."

There was a little silence, then Dolly Benson laughed and flung her half-smoked cigarette into the fireplace.

"All right. Then I shall ask Marna myself."

Biddy smiled.

"Very well; but she won't let you have it. She doesn't like Renny Martin, either, and she wouldn't approve of you going about with him, or of your going to his club. If she knew you'd lost at cards—and that he makes you play——"

"She will let me have it," Dolly said positively.

The Little Flapper caught her breath; something in the tone of Dolly's voice frightened her.

"Why will she?" she whispered.

"Because, if she doesn't," the Big Flapper said calmly, "I shall tell George Paget what happened the night we all drove over to the Blairs' to dance, and I shall tell him——"

"What happened?" the Little Flapper demanded.

"Never mind! I know, and so does Renny——"

For a moment the two girls glared at one another, then Biddy said passionately:

"You little beast!"

"It's no use calling names," Dolly declared indifferently. "All's fair in love and war, and this is war. I'm in a tight corner, and if you and Marna don't help me get out of it——"

"You'll never frighten Marna with threats," Biddy said proudly.

"Shan't we? We shall see. I don't imagine she's dying for me to tell George about the day Hugh Hubbard went away, for instance."

"What do you mean?"

"Only that I know she wanted to go with him, and meant to go! That she would have gone if something hadn't happened to prevent her." She laughed, triumphantly, reading the shock in Biddy's eyes. "So much for your saintly Marna!" she said jeeringly.

The Little Flapper lay very still, her face quite white and her eyes blazing; then suddenly, with a great effort, she sprang up in bed. She threw the clothes back and was out on the floor before Dolly Benson could move or prevent her.

"You beast—you beast?" she sobbed pantingly. "After all Marna's done for you! Oh, I hate you! I hate you!" She threw herself upon Dolly and beat at her with weak hands. "I hate you! I hate you!"

"Little fool!"

But the Big Flapper was frightened.

"Go back to bed," she pleaded. "You'll make yourself ill—dreadfully ill. Go back to bed at once. If anyone comes——"

"I hope someone will. I hope someone will. I'll tell them what you've been saying—every word of it!"

"I don't think you will," Dolly said calmly. She gave Biddy a little contemptuous push, so that she fell back on the bed, sobbing still. "Marna's only an ordinary woman, like the rest of us," she said coldly. "I'm not blaming her. It's no business of mine what she does, only she's got to help me. Here, get into bed."

She put a firm arm round the younger girl and laid her back amongst the pillows, pulling the clothes round her again.

"Do you want to die?" she demanded.

"I wish you would!" Biddy sobbed passionately.

Dolly stood at the foot of the bed, drumming her fingers on the rail, waiting impatiently for Biddy to be quiet; then she said:

"Well, I'll be off, as I seem to upset you so. You can write to me and tell me what Marna says, or I'll come again in a day or two."

"I never want to see you again!" Biddy sobbed.

The Big Flapper laughed.

"I don't know that I want to see you particularly," she said heartlessly. "But I suppose I shall have to. Bye-bye!" And she went away, closing the door behind her.

On the stairs she encountered Marna.

"Are you going already? Isn't Biddy all right?"

Dolly hesitated, then she shrugged her shoulders.

"I don't think she's very well," she said reluctantly. "She got cross with me, so I thought I had better not stay, in case it made her worse. I didn't mean to upset her."

"I'm sure you didn't," Marna said quickly. She never believed unkind things of anyone. "I'll run up to her. How do you think she is looking?"

"She doesn't look too frightfully strong," the Big Flapper said. There was a clever shade of wistfulness in her voice. "Do you mind if I say something, Mrs. Paget?"

"Of course not."

"And you won't tell Biddy I said it?"

"Why, of course not."

"Then I believe she's worrying about something," Dolly said in a lowered voice. "I'm sure she is. She wouldn't tell me, but she might tell you; she's so fond of you."

"But what can she have to worry about?" Marna asked anxiously. "I'd do anything in the world for her. She knows that."

"She's very lucky," Dolly said.

When Dolly had gone, Marna went up to Biddy's room and found the girl pretending to sleep. She was lying with her head half under the bedclothes, huddled up in a forlorn little heap, and she did not stir when Marna spoke.

"Biddy darling!"

No reply.

"Biddy, are you asleep?"

Still no reply.

Marna sat down by the window, leaning her chin in her hand. The May afternoon was drawing to a warm, golden close, and a faint breeze was stirring the scented lilacs in the park opposite.

More than a month since Hugh Hubbard went away—more than thirty days, and God alone knew how many hours!

Looking back to their last meeting, it seemed a lifetime ago to Marna, and yet somehow, since the Little Flapper's illness, the days seemed to have raced away on winged feet.

"It's because I've been busy. Because I've had no time to think about myself," Marna thought. "That's how it must always be. I must keep on doing things all the time. I must never let myself have any time to look back or think."

"Biddy!" she said again, almost imploringly, and this time the Little Flapper looked up from under the bedclothes, her face all flushed and tear-wet.

"I wasn't really asleep," she said. "And you've been crying!" Marna was beside her in a moment, petting her, scolding her, stroking her hair. "What have you been crying about, you baby? What is the matter? Tell me what is the matter, Biddy."

"I can't—I can't!" Biddy wept, but she put her arms round Marna's neck tightly. "I love you so much! I'd just die for you!" she sobbed.

"And that's what you will do if you go on upsetting yourself like this," Marna said with pretended severity. "Biddy, stop crying at once, or I'll go away and leave you. Stop crying, and then tell me what you've been crying about. If it's anything to do with Dolly, she——"

"It isn't—oh, it isn't!"

"Then what is it? Tell me, Biddy, haven't you always told me everything?"

"You know I have."

"Then tell me this."

"You'll be angry. You'll never trust me again."

"Trust you?" Marna tried to raise her, to see her face. "Biddy, what have you been doing?"

"I can't tell you. It's nothing."

"It's not like you to cry for nothing, Biddy."

"I'm tired. My head aches."

Marna ignored the excuse; there was an anxious light in her pretty eyes.

"It's nothing to do with Dolly?" she urged again.

"No, no!"

"To do with me?"

"Oh, no!"

"To do with somebody else, then?"

No answer.

Marna unclasped the girl's arms from her neck.

"Biddy, if you don't tell me, how can I help you?"

"I'm afraid to tell you."

"Afraid—of me?"

"You've always been so good to me."

"Is that a reason for being afraid, Biddy?"

"Yes, because this time I can't explain."

Tomorrow—Forty Pounds.

BELIEF IN PURGATORY

Prof. C. T. Everson Will Speak at Tabernacle Tonight on Subject

"Are Protestants Beginning to Believe in Purgatory?" is the subject of the lecture that Professor C. T. Everson will deliver tonight at the Everson Tabernacle, Pandora Avenue and Vancouver Street.

The subject promises to be an interesting one as so many of the doctrines that Rome has held for centuries, are being investigated more carefully these days.

"Men have considered the question of purgatory a joke," says Professor Everson, "but with churches debating such questions as prayer for the dead and repentance after death, purgatory does not seem so impossible as many were accustomed to think.

"I spent seven years in Rome and looked into the Catholic questions more deeply than the average Bible student, and I find that many questions that we have passed by with a wave of the hand, really demand serious attention if we are to arrive at true and reasonable conclusions."

NEW YORK GIANTS SUSPEND ROUSH; PROBE BY POLICE

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Eddie Roush, veteran centre fielder of the New York Giants, was suspended yesterday, according to Roger Bresnahan, acting manager of the Giants while McGraw is ill.

Roush checked out of a local hotel here two hours previous to Bresnahan's announcement.

"I've had enough of this czar rule." Roush is said to have told friends. "They watch me every moment, put 'dicks' on your trail. I wouldn't be surprised if they have tapped the telephone wires in our hotel rooms."

Holes Twenty-Foot Putt to Win Title

Radford and Jones Win In P.N.W. Tennis Play

Two Victoria Boys Advance in Tournament—Youthful Local Star Bests L. Porter in Thrilling Five-Set Duel of Sixty-Two Games

VANCOUVER, June 25.—Tennis stars of the Pacific Northwest got into action at the Jericho Tennis Club Monday in the first day's play of the Pacific Northwest sectional championships and the British Columbia clay court championships. Fine tennis was uncovered by most of the contestants and many close matches were played.

Wally Scott, of Tacoma, and Howard Langlie, of Seattle, provided the feature match of the day in the P.N.W. play. In a fierce battle of serves the Seattle star overcame his Tacoma adversary. The match went to four sets, the scores being 6-0, 14-12, 10-12, 6-3.

Bradshaw Harrison and Harold Lockwood, formerly of California, now of the University of Oregon and Tacoma, had rather a narrow call in the men's doubles of the British Columbia championships. Young Prusoff and McClaren, of Seattle, won the first set from them 7-5, lost the second by the same score, and then cracked in the third to lose 1-6.

The big surprise in the British Columbia clay court championships came in the women's doubles. Marie McNab and Mrs. Grigor being eliminated by Mrs. Muir and Mrs. Fawcus, 8-6, 1-6, 6-3.

Jack Rhine, Portland, junior P.N.W. champion, won in the men's singles, and then, paired with Gray, lost to Milne and Rhodes.

Farrell's Win Deserved One, Kerrigan Declares

Writer Substituting for Walter Hagen Tells of Great Fight New York Pro Put Up Against Bobby Jones in U.S. Open Play-Off

By TOMMY KERRIGAN

OLYMPIA FIELDS COUNTRY CLUB, CHICAGO, June 25.—Johnny Farrell climbed to the heights of gofidom yesterday when he won the open championship of the United States in a red hot thirty-six hole play-off from Bobby Jones by the margin of a single stroke.

As Walter Hagen had a long-standing engagement to appear in Kansas City yesterday, he was unable to remain for the play-off and write the story of it, so he delegated the task to me.

There is no player more deserving of winning the American Open contest than Farrell, and the way he took the measure of Bobby Jones in accomplishing it, adds more lustre to his win, for Bobby looms as something of a giant in golf, and as the professionals only have very infrequent opportunities to play against him, they are bound to be somewhat awed when brought into his company, especially in such an intimate way as in a play-off for the Open title.

Then, too, the professional is playing with much more at stake than the amateur, for the Open title does mean considerable to the fortunes of a professional.

ONE OF HEADLINERS

Farrell has been over a long, long trail in golf, winning an enormous number of tournaments all over the United States. He has been one of the headliners among the touring tribe of professionals and last Spring won the first five thousand dollar prize ever offered when he put in a final round of 63 in the Miami Open.

Jones died hard here today. When Farrell rapped in the winning putt, Bobby's ball was not more than four feet from the cup, and had Johnny missed, Bobby would undoubtely have holed his and they would have been in another deadlock.

Farrell played from in front practically all day, at the end of the morning round having a lead of three strokes after a brilliant round of 70, one of the lowest rounds of the championship. Jones did a 73. In the afternoon Bobby was out in 36 to 37 for Farrell and thus regained one of the three strokes.

STROKE BEHIND JONES

Then Farrell's backers were dismayed when their favorite took three consecutive fives and not only his lead washed away, but fell a stroke behind Jones. At the short twelfth Farrell holed his fourth two of the play-off and this won back the stroke and the players were level.

They halved the fourteenth and fifteenth in par figures, the thunder rattling in the skies and rain starting to fall on the rushing, mauling crowd of spectators who braved a nasty day to see the golf. At the short sixteenth Jones hit his iron too hard to the back of the green and was in long grass. He made a poor recovery and took a four to Farrell's three and was one stroke behind with two holes to go.

At the seventeenth it looked like curtains for Jones when Farrell's second was within three feet and Jones' ball was thirty feet away from the pin, but there was thunderous applause as Jones rolled his long putt down for a three. Farrell then holed his to keep the lead.

The eighteenth is a long hole, two full woods for the best players, and when Farrell's drive was quite short and Janes' way down the centre, it looked as if the match would be squared. Farrell's second was fifty yards short of the green and in the rough at the left, but Bobby failed to take advantage and hooked his brassie to the left of the green, the ball hitting in the crowd, which kept it from being much further from the pin.

CAMERAMEN STOPPED

Farrell played a fine third, eight feet short of the hole, and Bobby then chipped over a ground to within three feet. This presented the dramatic moment of the championship. It was Farrell's turn to putt, a putt that meant the open championship of the United States, and his first major win. He addressed the ball and stopped when a number of cameramen started to grind out film from a high perch behind the green. An official of the United States Golf Association had to warn the picture men against taking photographs.

Then Johnnie set himself again and he holed the putt. Bobby stood on the green and watched the ball which knocked him off, roll into the hole.

After winning, Johnny said that he was the happies boy alive, and that he would leave tonight for Kansas City to play in the tournament now going on there.

Johnny Farrell Wins U.S. Open Golf Crown

Defeats Bobby Jones by One Stroke in Thirty-Six Hole Play-Off—Scores Are 143 and 144—Nip-and-Tuck Throughout

CHICAGO, June 25.—Johnny Farrell, newly crowned open golf champion of the United States at the age of twenty-seven, steps forth today to survey his kingdom, reap the $50,000 reward that goes with it, and take his place as the third figure in the greatest triumvirate of shot makers America has ever had.

JOHNNY FARRELL

The slim young Irishman with the contagious smile, beat the master marksman of this trio yesterday, Bobby Jones, king of the amateurs, in a spectacular thirty-six-hole play-off for the championship, 143 to 144. He outstroked the other player, Walter Hagen, the day before in the final half of the seventy-two-hole competition that left him and Jones tied with 294 strokes each with Hagen in a tie for fourth at 296.

Thus out of the battle over the rugged No. 4 course at the famous Olympia Fields, Farrell, from what seemed a hopeless case after his first thirty-six holes, came back to gain a tie as Bobby slipped on his final round. With the big chance before him in the play-off, Farrell met the final test of championship calibre.

COULD NOT BREAK MORALE

Jones, on the last two holes, shot successive birdies, but could not break down Farrell's morale or gain a single stroke. Two of the greatest mashie shots that have ever been seen under pressure in championship competition, followed by two deadly putts, enabled Farrell to beat back the threat of the Georgian.

Five times Jones fought his way back to a tie, but he could not shake off Farrell, who persisted in laying them dead and sinking putts anywhere from fourteen inches to twenty feet, when they were most needed. The two scoring shots that really settled the issue came at the close of each play-off round. In the morning Farrell made four birdies, 4-2-3-4, to jump into a three-stroke lead. He lost all of this margin in the first two holes of the afternoon, but again he was the more brilliant at the finish as he closed with two more birdies to keep Jones at bay.

American Ace Downed In Wimbledon Tennis By New Zealand Star

Francis Hunter Loses Gruelling Five-Set Struggle to Andrews—Edward Higgs, British Star, Put Out—Ohta Beats Italian Player

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 25.—America's invading tennis stars, bidding for the English championship, lost one of their doughtiest warriors in the opening round of play today when Francis T. Hunter was eliminated by young Ed. Andrews, of New Zealand, a student at Cambridge, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, 2-6, 7-5.

All the other seeded players, including William T. Tilden, John Hennessy and the French "three musketeers," came through the first round with comparative ease, as did America's younger stars.

The totally unexpected defeat of Hunter stood out as the dramatic high spot of the day.

The five-set fight provided as many thrills as any Wimbledon match in recent years. For nearly three hours the lanky British colonial and the stocky, powerful American, fought under a broiling sun, as if their lives depended on each point.

YOUNGSTER BRILLIANT

Although only twenty-two, and comparatively inexperienced in international play, "Buster" Andrews, who holds the championship of New Zealand, played brilliantly, proving particularly devastating at the net. Hunter called into use every ounce of his great strength on every stroke and every trick of court strategy, flashing his red strung racquet with all the skill he could command, but the young New Zealander seemed to bear a charmed existence.

Time after time Hunter had victory within his grasp during the final terrifically fought set, only to see it slip from him. Before the set went to deuce he needed only one point to win, but could not put across the deciding stroke.

Whether or not Hunter made the error of underestimating the strength of his opponent, he dropped the first set, and Andrews was within one point of winning the second before Hunter settled down and started placing his drives so as to keep Andrews away from the net. By these tactics the American came from behind to win the second set, and after losing the third rallied to take the fourth.

10,000 SEE DUEL

By this time most of the matches had finished, and a throng of 10,000 tried to crowd into the small stands surrounding the No. 12 court. The gallery became wildly excited, cheering and applauding every point as Andrews raced into a 3-0 lead in the final set.

The grim-faced Hunter rallied and took the count at 5-4, only to have Andrews pull level. A netted ball, which prevented Hunter from running out the next game, seemed to upset him and he smashed another ball into the net.

His momentary abandonment of his steadiness cost Hunter dearly, and Andrews won the vantage game.

The final game was a bitter duel of long rallies, the last of which the New Zealander won with a fine passing shot from Hunter's rather weak second service.

Hunter and Andrews each won twenty-six games.

Hunter's Davis Cup teammates all came safely through their first matches, Tilden scoring a victory over M. V. Summerson, youthful English player, 6-0, 6-1, 6-0.

Hennessy downed E. Mather, English entrant, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2, and George Lott was not extended in winning from the middle-aged London doctor, F. Crosbie, 6-2, 6-0, 6-0.

Wilbur F. Coen, sixteen-year-old member of the American team, had a hard assignment in encountering the Danish Davis Cup player, Alex. Petersen, but won by scores of 7-5, 6-3, 6-3.

Another American schoolboy, Sidney B. Wood, provided a late evening sensation by beating Nigel Sharpe, British player, 10-8, 6-1, 12-10.

FRENCHMEN WIN EASILY

The French "three musketeers" won in straight sets, Rene Lacoste downing H. W. Walcott, 6-0, 6-2, 6-2, while Henri Cochet eliminated Mohammed Sleem, ranking player of India, 6-2, 8-6, 6-2, and Jean Borotra defeated A. H. Lowe, of England, 6-2, 8-6, 6-4.

England's all too slender chances of making a showing at Wimbledon suffered in the defeat of her ranking player, Edward Higgs, by the youthful Australian Davis Cup player, Harry Hopman, 6-2, 6-4, 7-5.

Italy's ambidextrous star, G. de Stefani who, instead of playing backhand, shifts his racquet and plays forehand strokes with his left hand, was beaten by the Japanese, Yoshiro Ohta. His seeded compatriot, Baron H. L. de Morpurgo, was among the winners, however, as was Gerald Patterson, of Australia, also seeded.

La Godfre, the British veteran, was eliminated by Ronald Boyd, Argentine, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Gerald Patterson, Australian veteran, had a hard time defeating F. R. L. Crawford, Anglo-Indian star, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Cattaruzza, of Argentina, defeated R. E. Worthington, England, 6-1, 7-5, 6-2.

Some of the most hotly contested tennis of the day resulted when the young American player, Sydney B. Wood, met the English player, N. Sharpe, defeating him 10-8, 6-1, 12-10.

Robson, the Argentine, defeated R. Dass, of England, 6-3, 6-2, 6-3.

DUNCAN EASY FOR CAPITALS

Local Baseball Squad Chalks Up 16-3 Victory at Up-Island Town —Dangerfield Stars

Jimmy Dangerfield, of the Capitals' heaving staff, held Duncan to five hits, while his teammates pounded out a 16-3 victory on Sunday in a Vancouver Island Baseball League fixture played at the Up-Island town. Capitals as a result increased their lead in the race for the pennant.

Dangerfield was traveling along for a shutout, but Duncan upset this idea in the eighth, when they sent one runner over. In their half of the ninth they added a pair.

Capitals started to score in the fourth, and with the exception of the eighth, runners crossed the plate in every innings. In the last, in particular, the Caps scored heavily, when no less than eight men circled the sacks. The scores follow:

Golfer's Soles Help Play Greatly

By SOL METZGER

George Duncan, a great British golfer and one of the leading instructors abroad, has made a close study of the methods of various champions and has reached certain definite conclusions. George believes that golf is played with the soles of the feet. There is much to this theory. Balance, which results in perfect timing and, in turn, perfect shot making, is an important factor in shot making. Duncan says the soles of the feet control both balance and timing.

Thus, when he starts a club back low along the ground Duncan does so by pushing with the ball of the left foot. Golfers vary in their theories about starting the club back. But George's theory is as good as any. Push off the left foot, he says, and drag the club back, the hands leading. That "hands leading" idea is sound. Long hitters like Jess Sweetser start it that way. It promotes suppleness of the wrists and permits the player to use wrist snap (pronation) at contact. That lends distance as it accelerates the speed of the clubhead at contact.

Duncan feels his weight with the soles of his feet. In other words, he tries to grip the ground with them and he lets them start his backswing. Duncan's theory is to play as though in your bare feet. Let us look further into it tomorrow.

As Told by Big Leaguers

Talking Today

PAUL KRICHELL: The Accidental Way in Which I Discovered Lou Gehrig.

CY WILLIAMS: Turning Down a Chance to Play Big League Baseball.

DAZZY VANCE: The Failure of My Hitting System to Work Out.

Paul Krichell's story of how he discovered Lou Gehrig—just like finding a million dollars for Colonel Jake Ruppert of the Yankees—shows that the baseball scout's career has the same sort of adventure in it that makes thrilling the career of the collector of rare books, antiques, pictures, etc.

After the Spring training camp activities, the baseball season begins to get underway, but several weeks elapse before the scout will be able to find embryo stars popping up in the bush leagues to draw his attention. During April and May he is apt, therefore, to hie himself to college-campuses and look over the highbrow ivory market.

"In the Spring of 1923," says the former catcher and present Yankee scout, "I saw in the papers that Columbia University would play Rutgers College at New Brunswick, N.J., an hour's ride out of New York. I decided to see the game.

"I had no particular hope of finding any good material. It was just a chance trip, for I had nothing else to do."

"I got on the same train that the Columbia team used in going to New Brunswick. I knew Andy Coakley, the old big league pitcher, who was coach of the Columbia team, and of course got into a conversation with him. However, neither Andy nor anyone else made any mention of Lou Gehrig. The lad was, of course, unknown to me."

"My attention was drawn to Gehrig at batting practice, on account of his huskiness and because of the way he kept hitting the ball over the trees that bordered the outfield."

"Gehrig played right field that day, which was a Thursday. His regular assignment was on the mound, but Coakley was saving him to use the following Saturday against the University of Pennsylvania, which had a crack pitcher named Huntzinger, later signed by the Giants."

"At bat he hit the ball a mile," I asked Andy Coakley about him.

"'He's a left-handed pitcher,' replied Andy.

"'Can he pitch?' I asked.

"'Well, he's big and strong and has lots of speed.'

"'When are you going to pitch him?'

'Saturday,' said Coakley, and then it was that I learned about the U. of P. game.

"Well, the next Saturday I went out to Columbia to see this Gehrig pitch against Pennsylvania. In the ninth inning, with the score 2 and 2, he came to bat with the bases filled and slammed the ball clear outside the field for a terrific home run."

"The Columbia students went wild. They paraded around, carrying Lou on their shoulders. I told myself, 'This kid is a hitter, that's what he is. He hits so well that nobody will ever care how good he pitches. I must land him for the Yankees.'

"I had to wait quite a time before I could get to him. Then I made an appointment for him to come to the Yankee offices the following Monday at ten o'clock. When he went away we had him to a contract to play for us as soon as the Columbia season was over."

A SQUARE SHOOTER

I've always had deep respect for the veteran Cy Williams, home run king of the National League for many a year. The Phillie outfielder is a fine clean living fellow, a credit to the game and to himself.

Cy's story of how he came to join the old Chicago Cubs shows just the sort of fellow he is. At the time, he was a student at Notre Dame University, where he not only played on the baseball team but was a star track man.

"The baseball team went up to Chicago," says Cy, "to play a practice game with the Cubs just before the start of the National League season. It was a cold day, I remember, and especially cold for Notre Dame, which lost 7 to 0."

"Something I did, I don't remember what, interested Charlie Murphy, the president of the Cubs. Not long after, he sent George Huff, the Cub scout, down to Notre Dame to look me over."

"Huff wasn't much impressed. However, Murphy had instructed him to offer me a contract and he did so."

"I said to him:"

"'Now, look here, Mr. Huff, I don't think I'm ready for the big leagues. I'm not ripe. If you want to be honest with me and yourself you'll say so.'"

"He agreed with me. So I went on:"

"'I'll promise you that when I am ready, I'll give the Cubs the first whack. But I won't sign a contract.'"

"This was in 1911. The next year, when school was finished, I journeyed up to Chicago and went to the offices of the Cubs, where I saw Murphy."

"I'm ready," I said.

"Good," said he.

"I played that Summer with the Cubs, but returned to Notre Dame in the Fall and finished school. Next year found me with the Cubs again, to remain until I was traded to Philadelphia."

A fine, conscientious fellow, Cy Williams. The sort of fellow that has made baseball the greatest game in America.

DAZZY'S GREAT IDEA

One of the big disappointments of the season to Uncle Wilbert Robinson of Brooklyn has been the early failure of Dazzy Vance to maintain his reputation as a mound terror. It would have meant a lot to Brooklyn if Dazzy could have started off the season mowing down the opposition as he did in his big years.

Of course the Dazzler is disappointed, too. And then he has to bear the additional sorrow of not having compiled as good a season at bat as he expected. A new system of training he tried in the South last Spring hasn't been a success.

In past years, Dazzy spent every possible moment at batting practice. His efforts to monopolize the batting cage annoyed everybody else. Then he would come north and hit .183 or .169, or something like that.

This Spring Dazzy changed his method. He stayed out of batting practice as much as possible. Asked about it, he said:

"No, I'm not practising base-hits like I did, because I'm saving my energy for the regular season. I figure I've always worn myself out down south and that's the reason I haven't hit .300."

"One day when I was a kid in Nebraska we played against a team from a neighboring town. The visitors' pitcher spent all his time before the game batting fungoes to the out field. He didn't warm up at all. When the game was called he just dropped his bat and walked out to the pitcher's box. Then he stood there, holding the ball and waiting for our lead-off hitter to come to the plate."

"Don't you want to throw a few balls to the catcher?" asked the umpire.

"Nope," replies this guy. "I'm saving all my strength for the regular game."

"All this pitcher did that day was to shut us out, striking out twenty-one men. I've been thinking it over and I've concluded that he had the right system. I'm saving my hitting strength for the regular season."

Dazzy saved his strength all right. But the last time I looked at his batting average it was .154.

MARIGOLD HEADS TO PENNANTVILLE

Defeat Times 10-1 to Increase Lead in Westholme Hotel Softball League—Colonist Go Under

Driving over ten runs in the seventh and eighth innings, Marigold traveled another step pennantward in the Westholme Hotel Softball League last night by defeating The Times to the tune of 10-1. The newsies were the first to score when they sent a lone runner around the bases in the fifth. This, however, proved to be their only counter. Marigold brought their heavy artillery into action in the seventh and drove over five runs. This act they repeated in the eighth.

COLONIST GO UNDER

Displaying their worst exhibition of the season, The Colonist fell victims to a surprise attack at the hands of the Crescents last night and were snowed under by a 23-9 score. The Crescents, who have been in the cellar for the better part of the parade, are now playing a good brand of ball and before the schedule is completed will more than likely hand some of the other top teams a surprise packet.

Langford climbed to within one point of The Times, second berth occupants, when they gained two points by default from the Wilfert Lumber Company.

THREE GAMES THURSDAY

Three games will be played on Thursday, with the feature tussle being between Langford and The Times for second place.

The games are as follows:

Marigold vs. Colonist, at Victoria West.

Times vs. Langford, at Willows.

Wilfert vs. Crescents, at Langford.

ADANACS WIN

Adanacs ladies' softballers drove their way to a 41-11 victory over St. Saviour's at Central Park last night in a City League fixture.

TONIGHT'S GAMES

Four games will be played by City League teams tonight as follows:

Foresters vs. Cameron Lumber, Central Park, lower diamond; umpires, T. Forbes and C. Fea.

Cordova Bay vs. Hillcrest, Work Point; umpires, C. Turner and Allan.

Wilson Bros. vs. Y.M.I., Central Park, Queens and Quadra; umpire, Wooster.

Navy vs. I.E.S., Central Park, upper diamond; umpires, E. Stock and C. Hamer.

COWICHAN WIN FROM VICTORIA

UP-ISLANDERS SCORE FIRST LEAGUE VICTORY OF SEASON

Defeat Local Team 147 to 124—Collison, Matthews and Meredith Best With Bat

The Cowichan cricketers, who are now putting in the field a stronger team than earlier in the season, scored their first league victory on Saturday on their home ground. Playing Victoria, the Up-Islanders won by 147 to 124.

Archdeacon Collison, playing for Cowichan, was high man on the side, and scored 43 not out against his former Victoria teammates of some years ago. Captain Matthews bore him company bravely, staying at the wicket long enough to compile 36 for second best individual score. Matson did most of the damage with the ball in Cowichan's innings, taking six wickets for 54 runs.

Meredith, who went in first for Victoria, wielded his bat to some purpose, making another good score against the Cowichan men of 46, easily the best total on the side. Rhodes was the most useful bowler for Cowichan, dismissing five batsmen at a cost of 59 runs. The full score follows:

Old-Timers Win Exciting Game From Eagles, 7 to 4

Rally in Eighth Inning Gives Veterans First Victory in Senior Ball Pennant Race—Nex Hits Ball Hard for Old Boys

Bunching four hits to drive over four runs in the eighth, with the score standing 4-3 against them, Old-Timers broke into the win column for the first time and defeated the Eagles 7-4 in one of the most interesting senior ball games seen at the enclosure this year. Abont 200 fans saw a game that gave them plenty of value for their two-bits.

Old-Timers looked like a new team. They had four errors chalked up against them, but only one proved costly. Their team had as many changes as this year's models of gas buggies and they fully deserved their win.

Three double plays graced the performance, one by the birdmen and the other two by the winners. Two came at extremely opportune moments, when the bags were populated, and cut off dangerous-looking rallies.

NEX HAS NEW DOMICILE

Old-Timers unloaded a run in the first inning, when Nex, who changed his uniform from that of the feathered tribe to the Old-Timers, tripled and scored on Nachtrieb's grounder. Eagles went one better in the second canto. "Tucker" James tripled and scored George Gandy, who had walked. Then Dunc sent James across with a single to right. The next innings was scoreless. Old-Timers assumed a one-run lead in the fourth. Givens singled and went to second when Quinn was given a free passage. Hall took one in the spareribs to load the cushions. Thompson then came to bat with two away and sent a burning single to centre, scoring Givens and Quinn. Hall also crossed the rubber but was called out for not touching the third sack. The next two frames went scoreless, each side pulling off spectacular double plays in the sixth.

Eagles went one in the lead in the seventh. Hap Gandy poled out a single to left, went to second on a passed ball, and scored when Straith missed Down's roller at short. Down rounded second and Straith tried to cut him off, but Nex let the ball go by and Down crossed the plate. George Gandy hit a double following this play, but Straith caught the last man out.

Eagles loaded the sacks with one away in the eighth, but Rutledge took Down's grounder, touched Gandy out on the way to second and then threw the batter out at first to retire the side.

THE BIG PARADE

Bert Nex started the parade in the eighth with a double. He scored when Alex. Potts connected for one base. Potts went to third when James juggled Nachtrieb's grounder, and scored on Givens' single. Quinn crashed out a hot single to right and Nachtrieb and Givens romped over for the total. Quinn was thrown out stealing second, when Hall fanned to retire the side. Eagles sent one to second in the ninth, but there the rally halted, Thompson breezing the next two batters.

Nex pounded the ball hard for the Old-Timers, getting a triple, double and a single out of four trips. Rutledge sparkled at short for the veterans, handling seven chances without a slip, while Down, in centre field for the Eagles, made three shoestring catches. George Gandy led the tribe with two hits out of four.

Charlie Thompson made his debut for the Old-Timers and pitched nice ball for the veterans. He was nicked for nine safeties and struck out seven. Eric Whitehead, pitching ace of the feathered tribe, worked on the mound for the Eagles and was touched for the same number of hits as Thompson. He breezed five.

THREE TRACK MARKS BROKEN

Canadian Athletes Show Form at Ontario Trials—Phil Edwards Shatters Record

TORONTO, June 25.—Overcoming adverse conditions and a sodden track, competitors in the Ontario track and field trials at Varsity Stadium bettered three Canadian records and one world's mark Saturday. The colors of the Hamilton Olympic Club dominated the meet. They carried off eleven firsts, six seconds and nine thirds.

Seventeen-year-old Jean Thompson, of Pepstang, Ont., set the new world record in the 800-metres women's race in 2 minutes and 26 seconds. The former record was 2 minutes and 26 2-5 seconds.

Fannie Rosenfeld, Toronto; Vick Pickard, Hamilton, and Phil Edwards set up the new Canadian records.

Miss Rosenfeld threw the discus 108 feet 3 3-4 inches, bettering her own mark of 86 feet 11 1-2 inches. Pickard soared over a bar set at 13 feet 1-4 inch, to create a new mark in the pole vault. The old record, also made by the Hamilton man, was 12 feet 8 inches.

Phil Edwards glided away from his opponents in the 800-metres race and finished in 1 minute 56 1-5 seconds, clipping a full second off the former record of 1:57 1-5.

"LIVING TRUSTS"

A Living Trust is so called because it goes into effect during the lifetime of the maker. It is a simple and sound method of ensuring the success of your plans for the future.

Such a trust may be created by placing securities or property in trust with this Corporation. The fund thus created will be managed and the income distributed according to your instructions.

Many objects can be accomplished through a living trust. You can provide a permanent income for your wife regardless of any changes in your personal fortunes. A fund can be established to assure a college education for your children and, in the same way, you can arrange a provision for aged parents or an invalid.

The great advantage of a living trust is that it enables you to see the workings during your lifetime of arrangements you have made. Any defects can be discovered and future difficulties foreseen and prevented.

REV. S. R. ORR FILES REPLY

Vancouver Clergyman Denies Allegations Made in J. G. Fleck's Divorce Petition

VANCOUVER, June 25.—Denying various allegations, which had been preferred against him in a divorce petition by John Gordon Fleck, Rev. Samuel Robertson Orr, Presbyterian minister, has filed an answer in Supreme Court, through his solicitors.

Mr. Orr, who has been cited co-respondent in the proceedings, contends that Mr. Fleck's permanent address is not Vancouver, but for a long time has been in Portland, Ore.

The clergyman also alleges that there is collusion and connivance between the petitioner and the respondent, Margaret Winifred Fleck.

In his capacity as minister of the Presbyterian Church, the co-respondent avers that he met Mrs. Fleck in November, 1926, when she represented to him that her husband was dissolute in his habits, was frequently in a state of inebriety, and had been guilty of many infidelities. She found it difficult to live with Mr. Fleck, according to Mr. Orr, and in her trouble turned to the clergyman and his wife for spiritual advice and assistance.

Mr. Orr states that he endeavored to reconcile Mr. and Mrs. Fleck and to bring about happier conditions for them. He explains that the only relations between Mrs. Fleck and Mr. Orr, as sworn to by the letter, was of a spiritual and friendly nature, such as a minister owes to a member of his congregation, or to anyone seeking to lead a better life.

Bennett made the presentations. His sister, Miss Mildred Bennett, selected the bag presented to Mrs. Guthrie.

Saanich Fires Give Firemen Busy Week-End

With four fires between Sunday afternoon and Monday afternoon Saanich firemen, with the new fire truck, had a busy time.

A grass and bush fire broke out at 2:15 o'clock on Sunday afternoon on the East Saanich Road, one mile from Keating. Four trips for water were necessary before the special apparatus designed for such fires quelled the blaze.

Yesterday afternoon a call came from Telegraph Bay, where campers left a beach fire which spread to the driftwood. The last call received was from the home of Dr. William Gibson, 370 Burnside Road, where rubbish in the garden caused a small fire.

At The Playhouses

LON CHANEY PLAYS UNDERWORLD ROLE

"The Big City," at Dominion This Week, Shows Star in Thrilling Story

Time was when the police detective was a beetle-browed individual with a Derby hat and flat feet, and the gangster a villainous looking thug in a sweater.

But those days are gone forever, as Lon Chaney demonstrates in his newest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "The Big City," now playing at the Dominion Theatre. The detective looks like a salesman or insurance agent, and the gangster is a tailored person who looks like a lawyer or doctor.

"The Big City" is an ultra modern romance of gangster life in New York—none the less thrilling because it is based on fact, and the conventional characters of the underworld are conspicuous by their absence. It portrays the gangster chief, played by Chaney, as a modern crook with a cabaret as a cloak for his activities and insurance against being "vagged" on suspicion and the detectives and policemen are all modern New York types—far from the usual screen conception.

Tod Browning directed the picture with deft skill from a scenario by Waldeman Young. The night club with its spectacular ballet and its hold-up scene are among the spectacular highlights of the new play.

COLUMBIA THEATRE What is said to be one of the most successful of all Norma Talmadge's motion pictures, the modern screen "Camille" is attracting enthusiastic crowds to the Columbia Theatre this week. Miss Talmadge's new picture is an innovation, in that it adapts a classic of the nineteenth century, known to millions throughout the world, to current conditions. The character "Camille," visualized by Miss Talmadge as an ultra-fashionable siren of modern Paris, is a radical departure from her most recent roles. It marks, as well, the fulfillment of her greatest screen ambition. Fred Niblo directed "Camille," the screen adaptation being prepared by Fred de Gresac and the continuity by Chandler Sprague and Olga Printzlau.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE Something new in feature comedy dramas, "The Gay Retreat," is now showing at the Playhouse Theatre. This is a war film with a difference, because it pictures entirely the amusing angles of the late unpleasantness. And Ted McNamara and Sammy Cohen are the two mirthmakers who are responsible for most of the hilarious situations in the picture. The story is splendidly motivated, and every mirth-provoking situation is the logical result of what preceded it. Not only humor, but thrills in plentiful measure and a double barreled romance help to make "The Gay Retreat" a treat for the whole family.

VARIETY THEATRE One of the most versatile directors of the screen is Edward Laemmle, whose latest production, "Held by the Law," is showing all this week at the Variety Theatre. The story by Bayard Veiller is a gripping melodrama containing a murder trial, a conviction on manufactured evidence, and the subsequent attempts to cheat the gallows by finding facts which will fix blame for the murder on the guilty man. The cast includes Marguerite de la Motte and Johnnie Walker in the featured roles, with Robert Ober, Ralph Lewis, E. J. Ratcliffe and others in support.

COLISEUM THEATRE "The Enemy," Metro-Goldwyn - Mayer's spectacular filmization of the Pollock stage drama, as directed by Fred Niblo, now showing at the Coliseum Theatre, is a graphic powerful story, one that grips the heart in its intensity. As "Pauli," the Austrian heroine, torn from the arms of her husband by the call of war, watching her family and friends divided in the heat of war hysteria and hatreds bred of war propaganda, Miss Gish has a role strikingly suitable for her fragile charm. She rises to sublime heights in some of the powerful dramatic sequences, such as the death of the child, where she, as its mother, forgets her grief to exult in the fact that "my baby is safe from the next war!" The stage presentation of Bostock and Peggie, a clever dancing team, was a decided success at the opening performance last night, with their version of "Little Steps From Big Dances." This act is highly entertaining and certainly received a share of applause. The Coliseum Concert Orchestra, under the direction of Lou Turner, played a special musical arrangement of selections that fitted the feature picture to a nicety. Director Turner features a special overture in the intermission entitled "The King's Lieutenant."

POLA NEGRI IN "THREE SINNERS"

Movie Favorite's Latest Medium, at Capitol, Scores as Perfect Entertainment

When the list of the best pictures of 1928 is made up "Three Sinners," Pola Negri's latest starring vehicle for Paramount, which was shown last night for the first time at the Capitol Theatre will have a prominent place at the top.

"Three Sinners" has all the elements of popularity, and, considered from every angle—plot, direction, acting, production and photography—is the embodiment of perfect screen entertainment.

Directed by Rowland V. Lee, "Three Sinners" is the story of what happens to a beautiful young wife when she makes one great mistake. Happy in her home, loving her husband, adoring her child, Pola Negri as the Countess Gerda Wallentin, in an unlucky moment, goes for an automobile ride with another man. Then comes the whirlwind and the reaping is a lifetime of remorse, with happiness won after suffering and hardship.

ON THE STAGE

The stage specialties this week are exceptionally fine, and present quite a varied entertainment. Among those on the bill are Bidwell and Rice, a comedy singing and instrumental novelty act; Jacquiline Griffith, a clever violinist, who can also dance and sing, "no foolin'," and Biles and Gold, the goofy collegiate steppers present a snappy and fast dance divertissement that is certainly great. The concert orchestra and Harold Bechtel, the singing M.C., are also on the bill again this week.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON CREMATORIUM

City Council Delays Decision After Briefly Discussing Question

Only in an incidental way did the matter of the crematorium come before the City Council last night. A little display of heat on the part of Alderman Woodward, who contended that the matter was not being faced in a fair way brought about an irregular discussion just before the council adjourned. The matter came up on a request as to when the subject was to be dealt with, and the answer was that it would be at the next meeting of the council.

The fact that there was on the agenda for the meeting a reference to this matter coming forward on a report by the committee brought about the question.

Alderman Woodward took the position that the stand of the committee was an incorrect one. He knew in advance that the committee was reporting against the proposal for the establishment of the crematorium.

There was in the proposal that came to the council the suggestion to provide a public utility for the city without the work costing what it otherwise would.

Alderman Litchfield thought that there would have to be considered in connection with the proposal the aspect of competition which was involved in connection with it against the city.

Alderman Marchant doubted whether the City Council had the authority to act as proposed. The site that was involved in the proposal for the erection at Ross Bay Cemetery was to be on Church of England property. Where did the authority of the City Council lie? he asked.

He said that it had occurred to him that it would be a good way out of the difficulty to erect a crematorium at the Royal Oak Burial Park. There was in this connection, he said, an understanding at the time that that site was selected that there should be erected such a convenience. If the money had been available at the time, he said, there was no doubt that it would have been built.

With nothing before the council to act upon, the matter was announced to be standing over until the next meeting of the council.

Final Bid ..... "3 S." Played by East.

Salient Points of the Bidding

South bids one Club originally instead of Diamonds because of the lack of "tops" in the Diamond suit. West's holding is ideal for an informatory double. He is prepared for any response his partner may make, even a business pass, the latter a contingency always to be considered. West assists his partner's forced Spade bid once, but passes the next opportunity up to his partner, realizing that his partner's holding may be exceptionally weak. East, having greater strength in the suit bid than his partner could reasonably expect, goes to three Spades. South, having shown his two suits, bid three Clubs over West's two Spades to allow his partner to show his preference for Clubs or Diamonds without increasing the contract.

Salient Points of the Play

Trick 8.—Having bid two suits and shown two Spades, South should have but one Heart. If this singleton is the Queen or King, game can be made by careful play of the Heart suit. If North holds both King and Queen, both will make and game will be impossible. The only chance therefore for game lies in dropping the King or Queen with the Ace.

Trick 10.—Declarer having exercised due care in keeping a higher Spade in Dummy than in his own hand, here puts Dummy in for the lead of another Heart through North's high Queen.

This is an ungentlemanly act, and sonny gets just about what he deserves. From the look on his face as he delves into the lady's secret writings, though, we can't help thinking that maybe it was worth it.

WEST INDIES FACING SINGLE INNINGS LOSS

England Leads Off With 401 in Test Against Caribbean Visitors, Who Are All Out for 177

TYLDESLEY MAKES 122 FOR HOMELAND

LONDON, June 25.—The West Indies touring cricket team, playing their first test match with England at the end of the second day's play at Lords, faced a single innings defeat. Scores were: England 401; West Indies 177 and 55 for six wickets. The tourists made a bright start today in their first innings, Challener and Martin making a pretty stand. After the lunch interval the West Indies wickets fell like ninepins, Jupp, the Northamptonshire amateur, being in a deadly mood. He took four wickets for 37 runs in the West Indies' first innings.

The tourists followed on and met a variety of bowling from Freeman, leading bowler of England this season, which was disastrous. When stumps were drawn his analysis showed he had taken three wickets for only ten runs. Challener was taken at the wicket by Smith, off Larwood, while Martin was out immediately afterwards, leg before wicket, to Tate.

The bowling of Jupp was an enigma to the West Indies' batsmen. Their last chance of making a fair showing went glimmering when Freeman scattered Constantine's stumps for a duck.

Sixteen thousands spectators watched the match during the day.

Chicago Professional Is Six Strokes in Front in Mid-American Golf Tournament—Makes Hole in One

ARCHIE COMPSTON IN THIRD PLACE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 25.—Al Espinosa, Chicago pro, completely eclipsed the fine field in the second round of the Mid-American open golf tournament at Lakewood today, and ended with 142, six strokes in the lead.

Aided by a hole-in-one on the 145-yard fifth, Espinosa burned up the wooded course to shear four from par with 68, which set a new course record.

Leo Diegel was second with 148, his 74 today matching that of yesterday, both being two above par 72.

The errant international threat in the National open still threatens here with Archie Compston, of England, third with 149, and Aubrey Boomer had 37-38—75 to match yesterday's score. Compston shot par golf in the opening round.

Trailing far behind were the muffled big guns of the tournament, Johnny Farrell, the new National open champion; Walter Hagen, British open champion, and Gene Sarazen, British open runner-up. Hagen took 42-39—81 to run his total to 155.

Johnny Farrell who, with Sarazen, arrived late today and played thirty-six holes to catch up with the field, wound up his third day of thirty-six-hole tournament play and his fifth of torrid competition with 153, in a seven-way tie for ninth place.

Giant Negro Will Take on Cleveland Baker Boy—Tommy Loughran to Fight Emanuel Thursday

NEW YORK, June 25.—A ten-round bout between George Godfrey and Johnny Risko, the Cleveland baker boy, again heads the week's metropolitan boxing card.

Originally Johnny was scheduled to meet the latest "black menace" last Wednesday night. Rain interfered and the show was postponed twice. Risko and Godfrey will battle Wednesday night at Ebbetts Field, weather permitting.

Tommy Loughran, active champion of the light-heavyweights, takes on Armand Emanuel, the Jewish lawyer from San Francisco, in a ten-round title match, at Madison Square Garden on Thursday night. Loughran originally was scheduled to meet Jimmy Slattery in a titular match, but Slattery suffered an injured hand.

Kicking a Tire... ...is no way to test it!

Dominion Royal Cord Balloons are made with sprayed rubber. It is the strongest and most uniform rubber known. It is prepared without the use of smoke or acids. They are made with Web Cord, the most modern way of combining rubber and cords. Mileage is built into them and they will deliver it.

KICKING a tire may be alright as exercise, but it can never give you a true indication of inflation. Only a a pressure gauge can do that.

There is a correct pressure for your tires. It depends on the size of the tire and the wheel load. At that pressure your tires will give you maximum mileage, maximum riding comfort. If your tire inflation goes three pounds above or below that correct pressure you cut mileage from the life of your tires, reduce riding comfort.

Use a gauge. Know the correct pressure for your tires—and maintain it. That's the only way to get full value for your tire dollar.

Better still, drop in at a tire service station once a week and have every tire inspected, and the pressure checked. Let an expert search for cuts, bruises, breaks in the cord fabric. Oftentimes a slight repair will prevent a blow-out.

TIN WEDDING IS DULY CELEBRATED BY NANAIMO PAIR

NANAIMO, June 25.—In honor of their tenth anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. T. Gulliford, Campbell Street, were hosts to a large number of friends to celebrate the occasion. About fifty guests were entertained in their home, which was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and roses. During the first part of the evening cards were indulged in. Later, Ald. Hart gave a very fine entertainment of conjuring tricks and comic songs. The music was supplied by Miss Mary Hart, who made a very efficient pianist, Mr. W. Wilson, who played the violin, and Mr. Fred Hart, the banjo.

A very dainty supper was served by the hostess, which was followed by a dance, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The host and hostess were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts.

At sunrise the guests dispersed after all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gulliford much happiness and prosperity in the future.

Invite Legion Branch To Outdoor Meeting

MAYNE ISLAND, June 25.—On Friday next the Plumper's Pass Branch of the Canadian Legion has been invited to hold their monthly meeting at Calzean, Mayne Island, by Colonel and Lady Constance Fawkes. Members are invited to bring their wives, children, friends and sweethearts, and are requested to assemble at 2 p.m. Tennis, clock golf and bathing will be indulged in.

WHAT you eat every day is either going to build you up, or it's going to drag you down! Look around you. Look into the homes of the rich. Lots of food. Yet you'll find in these homes just as many people badly-nourished as you'll find in the homes of the poor!

Modern foods are to blame. All too many of them are designed to please your palate rather than to give your body the vital nourishment it needs.

A well-known creator of health foods originated one food deliberately to overcome this. He made this food supremely delicious. He made it easy to digest. And he made it from whole wheat and malted barley to give you five elements of nutrition. This food is Grape-Nuts.

Grape-Nuts gives your body in a very easily-digested form dextrins, maltose and other carbohydrates for energy; iron for the blood; phosphorus for teeth and bone; protein for muscle and body building; and the valuable vitamin-B.

Eat it beginning to-morrow. Your grocer sells Grape-Nuts in wax-wrapped packages. It's ready to eat—with milk or cream. And so inexpensive. Four teaspoonfuls is a serving—and costs less than one cent.

Doctors and dentists are constantly warning us that we must eat some crisp foods that require chewing. Grape-Nuts must be chewed—and its pleasant "crunchiness" and delightful flavor tempt you to chewing. This starts digestion in the mouth and gives to teeth and gums the exercise which alone can keep them in healthy condition.

FINE RESORT SEEKS MORE FACILITIES

Qualicum Beach Possesses One of the Most Attractive Residential Centres in British Columbia

MORE HOUSES ARE NOW BUILDING

New Subdivision Overlooking Bay Is to be Opened —Poultry Raising Possibilities Are Excellent

One of the best known Summer resorts on Vancouver Island is undoubtedly Qualicum Beach, which is attracting annually an increased number of visitors.

This year two of the three hotels have extended their premises to take care of the influx, and in one case, that of the new wing of the Qualicum Beach Hotel, this addition was opened for the visit of Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Willingdon, while the Sunset Inn has built a lodge as annex on the site of the Mackenzie's garage, recently burned down. The hotels and camps on the beach are busy, and an additional automobile camp has come into being. The public is well acquainted with the Bayview camp at the southern entrance to the settlement, while this year is added the Grand View camp on the Comox Road. Improvements are also being made on the front for picnickers.

NEW SUBDIVISION

The demand both for houses and for residential expansion is being met by the opening of a new subdivision on the Nanaimo Road, lots 108 and 122, known as Qualicum Heights, on the high land approaching from the south.

All the available housing accommodation is booked up for the month of July, it is reported by the secretary of the Qualicum Beach Board of Trade, with almost similar conditions for the month of August. It is believed that from fifty to one hundred houses could be utilized if they were available during the Summer season, as people come from all Coast cities to share in the attractions of the beach, the links and associated pleasures. At the present time a number of houses are being built.

The district is not without hope that the projected breakwater may yet come into being, the Board of Trade having been assured again that an official of the Department of Public Works will visit the district to look into the possibility of a breakwater at which vessels could berth, and supplies, chiefly feed, be brought in expeditiously, and which would form in its inner section a protection for pleasure craft, both yachts and motor boats.

POULTRY BUSINESS

One of the most important phases of the situation from a production standpoint is that of the poultry industry which has made great progress recently. The successes of Mr. J. Burgess with Rhode Island reds has received widespread fame. Among other important fanciers is Mr. C. G. Golding, who features White Leghorns and Barred Rocks.

The poultry industry has a bright future in this locality, owing to attractive conditions, demands for eggs, facilities for feed and other essentials.

Qualicum will be the scene this year, immediately after the election, of the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island.

Makes Sour Stomachs Sweet

In Five Short Minutes—Can't Beat Bisurated Magnesia to End Indigestion—Gas!

When your stomach burns with gas and the sour acid indigestion of fermented food—just take a teaspoonful or two tablets of Bisurated Magnesia—and quick and certain relief is yours!

Folks whose stomachs either chronically or just occasionally won't perform properly, find in pure Bisurated Magnesia a safe, sensible, pleasant, economical and never failing means of avoiding all symptoms of indigestion or after-eating distress. They eat what they please, and their digestive organs behave because Bisurated Magnesia prevents the formation of the gas and excess acid that causes indigestion. Used either to prevent or to correct indigestion, you can't beat Bisurated Magnesia, which is obtainable from any well stocked druggist in either tablet or powder form. Do not confuse with Milk or Citrate Magnesia, and be certain the Magnesia you take is Bisurated. The first trial proves its great value—try it today sure! (Advt.)

MRS. NORRIS OF NANAIMO DIES

HAD LONG FIGHT AGAINST ILLNESS

NANAIMO, June 25.—The death occurred at 6 o'clock Saturday evening of Mrs. A. T. Norris, at her apartments in The Free Press Block. The late Mrs. Norris had been ill for several months and fought a brave fight against the inevitable. She was seventy-seven years of age, and died in the town in which she had spent all but three years, practically, of her life. She was of pioneer stock, having been one of the few survivors of the little colony which arrived from England here in 1854 on the historic Princess Royal, landing in a town of primitive possibilities, and the establishment of a colony to which relatives and friends could emigrate. Mrs. Norris lived here with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gough, until 1869, when she became the bride of the late George Norris, Mr. Norris at that time was employed on the editorial staff of The Colonist, and later, in 1874, he founded The Nanaimo Free Press, an afternoon paper, which he own and managed until the time of his death in 1902.

During Mrs. Norris' life in Nanaimo she was a prominent member of the Methodist Church, and was one of the first members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Nanaimo Hospital. She, in earlier life, took part in the activities of the I.O.G.T., retaining an interest in the lodge up until the time of her death.

When death came on Saturday she was surrounded by the two surviving members of her family, Mrs. (Capt.) V. L. E. Larsen and Mrs. M. E. Watson, Vancouver, and her sister, Mrs. W. K. Leighton, of Oliver, B.C. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sam Gough, was also present at the last moments. The late Mr. Sam Gough, for many years city clerk for Nanaimo, who predeceased his sister a few years ago, was one of Nanaimo's historians and official recorders of past events.

SCHOOL OPERETTA ACTED AT NANAIMO IS GREAT SUCCESS

NANAIMO, June 25.—A very pretty fairy operetta was given by the pupils of the Middle Ward School on Saturday evening, which proved to be a great success. The pupils, one and all, put much vim into their rendering of the music. Special mention should be made of the principals, Lorraine Flynn, a dainty little miss who acted the part of Little Rose; Adele McMillan, as Hallo'ing Thumb; Barbara Monk, the Fancy Queen; Tom Weeks, Giant Forgot and Verry Gunness, Rosebud; Can and Can't did well, too. Repeatedly the audience asked for encores.

Much credit is due to the patience of the following teachers: Miss Meldrum, the leader; Miss Brown, costumier in chief, and Miss D. Fisher, the accompanist. The proceeds will be used to purchase library books for the Middle Ward School.

PARKSVILLE'S FASCINATIONS FOR VISITORS

Has Hitherto Been Diffident of Sounding Its Praises—Possesses One of Finest Bays on Island

AIR OF PERMANENCE MARKS COMMUNITY

Parksville is looking forward to a busy Summer, with considerable activity in tourist travel, in realty transactions, and in co-operative sales, stimulated by the expansion of poultry farming.

Placed at the intersection of travel between the East and West coasts, all tourist business must necessarily pass through the district, and there is thus adequate communication by train and stage to all points.

The inquiries for tourist accommodation in July are good, and will probably continue until the middle of September. An effort to develop the attractions of the bay is under consideration, there being a lack of some of the facilities which are to be found elsewhere in connection with the provision for tourists, who are becoming more exacting in their needs each year.

The district possesses a large number of experienced farmers, and the co-operative movement finds in the district one of the four principal centres of Vancouver Island for its operations. The egg marketing situation, in its carload shipment activities, is strongly supported in this locality.

The residential advantages of Parksville have always made a particular appeal to the wealthier class, and there are many fine homes in the area from Nanoose Bay north. The houses are occupied by permanent residents around Parksville Bay, and accordingly there is still a considerable demand to meet the fluid needs of Summer travel.

The fishing facilities of this district have always gained approbation, good fishing being attainable within short distance of Parksville by road, as at Cameron Lake and River, and at Englishman's River.

While industry has not yet played a large part in the life of Parksville, apart from agricultural pursuits, there is quite an activity in the tie camps, whose output, chiefly from the F. M. Singer interests, have made an important source of production this season to the area. Transfer to water-borne carriage is made at Arbutus Point chiefly.

In British Columbia Court of Appeal

Peterson vs. Millerd Packing Company, Limited: An appeal by defendant from the judgment of Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, in an action for $1,018.92, being balance of hire of a fishing motor boat. The charter of the vessel was for sixty days at $25 per day, with a provision that if the boat was required for a further period she would be continued. There was a dispute about the time after the expiration of the sixty days, but judgment was given for the full amount sued for. Defendant appealed and judgment was reserved.

Mr. Hossie for appellant; Mr. Craig, K.C., for respondent.

Hodgkinson vs. Martyn: This case, tried by Mr. Justice Morrison, is an appeal by defendant, against whom judgment was given in $500 damages for alleged assault. It seems that the Asser Diesel Engines (1926), Limited, went into bankruptcy and plaintiff was placed in possession of the premises by the Custodian in Bankruptcy. The Department of Industries (Provincial) had a loan on the equipment secured by a conditional sales agreement, and had taken steps to distrain thereon when defendant found plaintiff in possession, an altercation in the course of which plaintiff alleged he was seized by defendant and forcibly ejected from the premises. Defendant on the contrary denied this, and stated that plaintiff left the premises voluntarily. The trial judge took the defendant's view, and gave him damages as stated. The Court of Appeal reserved judgment.

Mr. C. W. Craig, K.C., for appellant; Mr. MacInnes for respondent.

Rex vs. Porter and Marks is an appeal against a conviction in a prosecution for conspiracy to defraud in connection with stock-selling transactions. The accused were given seven years in the penitentiary, and are appealing on the usual grounds in criminal appeals.

Mr. Farris, K.C.

Work was also started last week on the new Assembly Wharf at Port Alberni for the Dominion Government and will be rushed through as soon as possible. The contractors, the Victoria Pile Driving Company, are using all local labor as far as possible. This wharf, when completed, will fill a long felt want in the district, and will give the many small mills scattered in the district an opportunity to share in the export market.

Tenders have been called for the building of a new Masonic Temple on Argyle Street, in Port Alberni, and the contract will be let this week. The new temple is to be fifty by sixty-six feet, with lodgerooms, cloakrooms, etc., upstairs, and two stores, thirty-two by fifty, on the ground floor.

"I Got It For Passing My Exams"

"GEE, George, I bet my dad will get me a C.C.M., too, I studied hard all year, and I passed my exams. well. I think I deserve a bike, don't you?"

"I hope you get it, Eddie. Then you can join the rest of us fellows in our runs out into the country and our picnics.

"I'm taking mine away on my vacation, too. There are lots of country roads to ride along and dandy woods to explore, some streams to fish in and other things to see, all within easy riding distance.

"Mother says it will be so handy to have a bike around. There's always the mail to go for and other errands to run."

"Well, George, I'm going to get my dad to go with me to the C.C.M. dealer's and see the new models—especially that dandy Curved Bar Sport Model and the other one a boy won't outgrow."

"Don't forget to tell him, Eddie, that C.C.M. Bicycles are made of cold-drawn Seamless Steel Tubing and equipped with the C.C.M. Triplex Hanger, Gibson Pedals, Steel Rims, Dunlop Tires and the Hercules Coaster Brake without extra charge.

"If he says he's short of cash, Eddie, tell him he only needs to pay a few dollars down, and the rest in small weekly or monthly payments."

"And I'll offer to help pay the balance, George. There are lots of jobs for a boy with a bicycle during the summer holidays, delivering small parcels, running messages, and doing other things. It will be good experience and heaps of fun, too."

"Well, 'so long,' Eddie. Go to it and get that C.C.M. Bicycle."

Is Canadian Motherhood Getting a Square Deal?

EVERY day of the year four Canadian mothers lose their lives as a direct result of childbirth. This mortality rate places Canada seventeenth among the nations of the world in conserving the lives of mothers and viable children. Canada's maternal mortality is too high. More education and better care will reduce it. Every women's organization in the Dominion is urging provision for that education and care. Government departments do a valuable service in so far as they are able to. But a still deeper study of a very vital problem is needed and ACTION. It is a challenge to the medical profession, the government and the country at large. The July number of The Chatelaine, devoted as it is to Dominion feeling and development, discloses some startling facts, and suggests remedies which it is hoped may bring a closer realization to every lay person, of a situation which the nation as a whole must now combat.

As Our Great-Grandmothers Cooked Some delicious traditional recipes from the cook books of United Empire Loyalist and early French ancestresses, furnish a delightful symposium of interesting cookery. The mothers of Confederation may well contribute to your Dominion Day menu!

Only a Superwoman Can Juggle a Family and Career

by Virginia Coyne Knight

Answering the recent article in The Chatelaine which caused so much interest and controversy in urging every woman to "lead a double life," this able Canadian writer recounts the story of a wife who "also ran." If you read the first article, you will perhaps find that this one answers many protests you yourself have raised. If you have not read the first article, you will possibly feel like writing the first one yourself. Read it and see!

JULY ISSUE

Serials — Short Stories — Poems — Valentine's sprightly summer serial, "One Good Turn", continues with most amusing celerity, while two brilliant short stories complete the fiction for July.

Two or three distinguished poems, notably a Dominion Day poem by the gifted young Haligonian, Charles Bruce, and a whimsical bit of "woman's" verse by Florence Randal Livesay, continue the interesting featuring of Canadian verse which has been The Chatelaine's policy from the outset.

LUCKY JIM RE-ELECTS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

NELSON, June 25.—That the new Lucky Jim provided the past Winter was operating up to expectations in the matter of high recoveries and low working costs, and that the property in general was in excellent shape, was the tenor of the annual report of the board of directors of the Lucky Jim Lead & Zinc Co, laid before the shareholders at the annual general meeting at Zincton Friday. No change was made in the board, Colonel H. H. Yuill, James Anderson and A. Brae, all of Kaslo; R. H. Stewart and S. W. Miller, of Vancouver, and J. V. Pohlman, of Spokane, all being re-elected.

Control of the company is in the hands of the Victoria Syndicate through ownership of the majority of the stock, which came about through the Victoria Syndicate buying the special issue made to finance the new mill and later adding to its holdings by purchases made in the market. The board re-elected the former officers: President, Colonel H. H. Yuill; vice-president, R. H. Stewart; secretary-treasurer, James Anderson.

DULLEST DAY ON MART FOR MANY MONTHS

Total Sales Only 1,088,300 Shares — Early Selling Effective Against Commodity Issues

BOND QUOTATIONS SAG LISTLESSLY

NEW YORK, June 25.—Wall Street today experienced the dullest stock market in eighteen months. Prices sold off at the opening, rallied around midday and then backed and filled during the afternoon.

Final quotations disclosed considerable irregularity, but gains outnumbered losses.

The day's sales were only 1,088,300 shares. Credit conditions continued firm with indications of a further stiffening of call rates before the end of the week. Call loans were steady today at 6½ per cent, with banks calling about $315,000,000 in loans during the day.

Early selling in today's market was most effective against the steel, motor, rubber and sugar shares, new low prices for the year or longer were registered by United States Steel common, Colorado Fuel, United States Rubber common and first preferred, Maniti Sugar preferred, Cuba Cane Sugar preferred, Collins & Aikman, General Outdoor Advertising Certificates, Goodyear, Mandel Brothers, Mother Lode and Vivaudou. United States Cast Iron Pipe dropped five points and Midland Steel Products preferred three.

Texas & Pacific was the day's outstanding feature, soaring twelve points to a new high record at 154.

Except for a further break of thirteen points in Japanese yen to 46.30 cents, there were no changes of consequence in the foreign exchange market. The French franc stabilization programme announced over the week-end had no effect on the local rate, which held around 3.93 cents. Sterling cables were quoted around 4 87 7-8.

The bond market began the new week in as dull and listless a manner as it closed the previous week with prices sagging to around the minimum of the year, trading light and traders seemingly indifferent.

Toronto Mines

(Supplied by R. P. Castle & Co., Ltd.)

TORONTO, June 25.—A few thrills and a considerable number of chills were provided in today's market. Noranda continued to be the headliner, opening at 37.50, easing off to 37 and then selling up to 38.90 to close at 38.60 to 38.75. It now begins to look as if the short interests in this stock are going to take a good spanking.

Amulet, in sympathy with the upturn in Noranda, moved up to 3.60 bid at the close, selling as high as 3.70 during the latter part of the session. Amity at 51 was strong and unchanged. Arno was the heaviest trader on the board when the street heard that the Arno Company had won their suit against the Timmins interests regarding control of the Coxheath Copper property on Cape Breton Island.

Barry Hollinger, Howey and Kirkland Lake broke sharply after the opening selling down to 60, 64 and 1.65 respectively, closing at 60 to 60 1-2, 65 to 66 and 1.69 to 1.70. Sheritt Gordon at 5.90 to 5.95 was 8 points easier; Pend Oreille at 13 to 13.10 was 25 points weaker. Some interesting buying appeared in Teck Hughes this morning and moved the stock up to a close of 10.75 to 10.80. San Antonio at 35 to 36 was down 1 1-2.

Chicago Grain

(Supplied by B.C. Bond Corpn., Ltd.)

CHICAGO, June 25.—Wheat: Visible supplies decreased a million bushels more than in the corresponding week last year. There are evidences that the bulk of movement of old Spring wheat is about over. New wheat is beginning to move in the Southwest, with twenty-five cars at Kansas City and fifty-five cars at Wichita, Kansas.

Today's market was largely local, though there was said to be a selling wave originating from the Northwest. Export sales were small and mostly durums.

Corn: A decrease of nearly 2,000,000 in visible supplies compared with a decrease of nearly a million and a half for the corresponding week last year. This means the total now is 16,000,000 under last year's figures. Half of this week's decrease was in Chicago.

Oats also decreased materially, and the feed grain situation is becoming increasingly tight and closely adjusted.

Trade was rather light, many locals persistently bearish and the market heavily oversold.

Montreal Stock Letter

(Supplied by B.C. Bond Corpn., Ltd.)

MONTREAL, June 25.—Brisk trading in the short session today caused by substantial buying from New York and Toronto, was the feature in Noranda, the stock selling at 39.00 in New York and touching 38.70 in Montreal, with a turnover of 4,333 shares in the Montreal market. Other issues changing included Dryden, up 1-2 to 6 1-2. Imperial Oil down 1-2.

The Montreal Stock Market was closed in the afternoon on account of the St. John the Baptist parade. The omission of the afternoon session will not represent large financial loss to the brokers and traders as the volume of trading these days is light. Brazilian closed at 54 after easing off to 53 1-2. Winnipeg reacted one point to 104. Steel of Canada eased off two points to 183 on odd lot selling.

Whitney Letter

(Supplied by Branson, Brown & Co., Ltd.)

NEW YORK, June 25.—Whitney, of the Wall Street Financial Bureau, says today:

"It is very possible that, in the period of stabilization we will have to go through preparatory to an advance, we will have several days such as Saturday, and if other days accept the adverse features thrown at them and act as well in the face of these, we will ask nothing more satisfactory until such times as these disturbances have exhausted themselves and the market, as a unit, has become ready for a general advance.

"Stocks which should be bought when they look worst on the tape are Allied Chemical, American Smelting, American Can, Texas Co., Cons. Gas, Hudson & Man., U.S. Leather A, Kroger, and in the rails, C.P.R., Texas & Pacific and Mo. Pac."

STOCK OPINIONS

J. S. Bache—It is our impression that the market during the fore part of this week will be forced to withstand further efforts to depress security prices. We rather believe that in the case of many pivotal issues, support will be found forthcoming at approximately the low points seen during last week.

Hornblower & Weeks—With the market plainly in a mood of indecision as what it had better do, it is probably just as well to continue watching as to participate in it. Our guess is that the current tendency toward improvement will carry into the early part of this week when both sentiment and the direction of prices will again face a reversal of form.

PLAN TO ERECT OFFICE BUILDING

Canadian Investment Bankers Buy Central Site in Heart of Vancouver

Announcement is made through the Vancouver office of Nesbitt, Thomson & Company, Limited, Canadian investment bankers, to the effect that the company has purchased a building site on Hastings Street West, Vancouver, between Granville and Howe Streets, and contemplates the erection of an office building for its own use in the near future. Mr. A. J. Nesbitt, the head of the firm, who recently visited Vancouver, during his visit made an offer for the property which was accepted and the firm, which has recently opened offices both in Vancouver and in Victoria, thus becomes permanently and actively identified with the business growth and development of British Columbia.

The property has a frontage of twenty-six feet and a depth of 120 feet, and is located in the heart of Vancouver's financial district. Macaulay, Nicholls & Maitland, Ltd., acted for both parties and while the purchase price is not disclosed, it is understood that the transaction represents a very substantial investment on the par of the new owners.

Mr. Arthur Buckle has charge of the company's activities in Victoria, with offices at 205 Central Building.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, June 25.—July wheat declined 1 1-4c and October about 3-4c during the early period this morning, with some scattered liquidation in evidence due to the cables coming considerably weaker than due and to the improved weather in Western Canada.

The market held steady for most of the day with a very light trade passing, but no particular pressure. Export business over the week-end was said to be very small and local exporters and shippers were doing nothing. The market ran into some resting orders in scale-down, which was said to be for New York accounts, but the volume was only small, and, after this demand was satisfied, prices made further losses. The July wheat was again the weak month, going to a discount of 3-4c under the October. The Chicago market also sold lower, and it was reported that the pressure of new wheat coming on the market was beginning to be felt.

The local cash market was also very dull, there being a poor demand for all grades, buyers holding off until further export business is worked. Spreads were unchanged to 1-4c lower. Good showers were received over the week-end throughout Southern Saskatchewan and Alberta, but Manitoba and the central and northern areas of the other two provinces were mostly dry. Temperatures are moderately cool and general conditions are said to be ideal, with most of the wheat crop in all three provinces now in the shot blade. Weather in Winter wheat territory is showing some improvement, but further rains were reported in some areas.

World shipments last week totalled 15,180,000 bushels of wheat, but only 6,036,000 bushels was cleared from North America. On passage supplies decreased 1,864,000 bushels. Liverpool closed 1-8 to 1-4 up, but was due 1 3-4 higher. The United States visible showed a good decrease of 2,705,000 bushels, and the Canadian visible decreased 1,497,000 bushels.

The market looks heavy, and, unless foreign buying develops on a much broader scale, believe these levels will be difficult to hold, as supplies of old wheat are very large and crop prospects excellent. Winnipeg futures closed 1 7-8 to 1 1-4c lower, close to the bottom.

Coarse Grains: These markets were exceptionally dull today, with nothing of feature going on. Prices were a little easier, but there was not much pressure in evidence outside of a little scattered liquidation. Oats closed about 1-2c lower; barley 1-4c lower and rye 3-4 to 7-8c lower.

Flax: Dull, featureless market. Demand poor, but nothing much coming out. Closing prices 3-4 to 1-8c lower.

Money at Work
For the Small Investor

There is just one thing to remember when it comes to purchasing securities from strangers. Don't!

Securities should always be purchased from a reliable broker, bond house, or bank, and not from the first individual or concern which happens to offer them, no matter how good the security may appear to be. Many times the average investor who buys from strangers gets a bond which looks all right to him but is really valueless.

For instance, the bonds of a well-known railroad in Iowa are on the old property which lost all value in the reorganization of the company some years ago. The average investor has no method of knowing that from the certificate, and he would have to resort to a keen memory if he depended upon himself alone in purchasing those bonds.

Niagara District Flooded by Rain; Three Men Drown

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., June 25.—Four deaths and damage exceeding $100,000 are attributed to fifteen hours' torrential rain that visited the eastern section of the Niagara district Saturday.

Alvin Shieler, thirty-eight, of Stevens, was instantly killed when his motorcycle skidded on the water-covered ridge road and crashed into a truck.

Three lives were lost in the Chippewa Creek, which had been transformed into a raging torrent. Steve Arvis, nine years old, lost his life while swimming at Coyle, while Vitto Innanuzelli, twenty, and Marco Ramicla, sixteen, of Niagara Falls, were drowned when they were caught in the swollen waters.

The greatest urban damage was caused at Niagara Falls, Port Colborne and Humberstone, where cellars were flooded and merchants' stock damaged.

In aid of a children's vacation campaign, Madge Kendall, the noted actress, recently auctioned a Pekinese dog for $100 at a matinee at Chelsea, England.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

MALARIA—(Part 1)

It has been definitely proven that malaria is a blood parasite which is introduced into the human being only through the bite of the female mosquito of the genus anopheles.

It is one of the most serious diseases encountered in the warm damp climates, as no other infection compares with it as a killing and disabling disease, with the exception of tuberculosis.

In the United States malaria has decreased within the last fifty years. This is entirely due to the improved sanitary measures which have been discovered by the Government investigators.

In all probability, within a few years, malaria will be entirely stamped out in civilized districts. The best measures for its prevention are the draining of swampy lands and the spreading of a surface of crude oil upon any pools of stagnant water which cannot be removed. It is also necessary to protect infected persons from the bite of this mosquito, because in no other way is the disease transmitted from one person to another.

There are several types of malaria which are distinguished from each other by the frequency of the paroxysmal fever. I shall not go into detail as to this difference, since the cause and the treatment are alike in either of the forms.

This disease is characterized by three stages. The first stage is a period of internal congestion, when the blood leaves the skin, producing a pallor and the feeling of intense chill. This feeling of coldness is only an illusion, however, since the fever usually reaches its maximum toward the end of this stage. The patient then feels flushes of warmth over his body which mark the beginning of the hot state, and during which the face becomes reddened, and the skin, over the entire body, hot. The third stage begins with small beads of sweat upon the face. This sweating gradually spreads until the entire body is covered with a copious perspiration. Much toxic material is discharged through the skin by this process, and within an hour or two all discomfort disappears and the patient usually sinks into a refreshing sleep. The total duration of this paroxysm averages from ten to twelve hours, but may be much shorter.

The disease is frequently intermittent. As a result, the patient may be considered cured, but have a recurrence of the disease from several months or years apart even without any possibility of further contact with the mosquito.

Occasionally the fever undergoes pernicious changes. The patient may sink into forms of brain disturbance such as acute delirium or rapidly developing coma; or, the disease may attack the digestive system, producing vomiting, intense prostration and diarrhoea. There is another type of a serious nature known as a black water fever.

Quinine is generally regarded as a specific for malaria, but I have come to the conclusion that in some individuals it acts as a poison, and it is in these cases that the dangerous forms occur which were mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

One of the oddities of this disease is the fact that it has a tendency to cure certain other diseases. This fact is now being experimented with to some extent in the treatment of some severe chronic diseases such as tuberculosis, insanity, and syphilis. This benefit is probably caused by the fever and sweating of the malarial patient, producing oxidation and elimination of some of the toxins of the other disease. This is easily understood to a person who is familiar with the fasting cure.

MR. W. G. BARBER VISITS VICTORIA

C.N.R. Telegraph's General Manager Is Here With Official Party

There has arrived in the city in the course of a Western tour, an important party representing the C.N.R. Telegraphs Service. It is headed by Mr. W. G. Barber, the general manager of the system, with headquarters in Toronto. He is accompanied by Mrs Barber and Miss Barber. Mr. R. W. Ball, of Winnipeg, general superintendent, is also in the party, accompanied by Mrs. Ball. Mrs. J. F. McTaggart, of Toronto, wife of the general superintendent at Toronto, is included among the visitors. Mr. J. H. H. Barber, commercial agent of the C.N.R. Telegraphs at Winnipeg, and Mr. G. H. Stead, superintendent for British Columbia, with headquarters in Vancouver, are also included in the party.

The tour is being conducted, the general manager said, for the purpose of making a survey of the work throughout the West. He expressed satisfaction at the appreciation that was being shown by the public of the excellent service which he said it was the aim of the company to provide. Many appreciative letters were being received by the organization.

New York Stock Letter

(Supplied by Branson, Brown & Co., Ltd.)

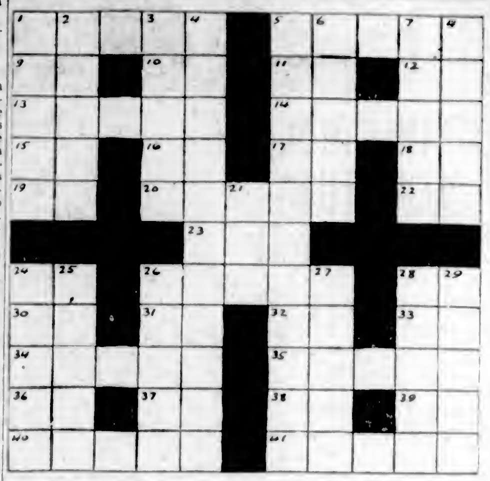

NEW YORK, June 25.—The stock market was a quiet affair, the selling that it attracted following the renewal rate of 6½ per cent made but little headway and the market soon steadied itself under leadership of the rail section. There was considerable shifting around, however, and oils and coppers firmed up, while motors on the noon bulge attracted some scattered selling and sagged from the midday recovery.

Rubber shares were under pressure, which was undoubtedly influenced by the recent cut in tire prices, which accounted for a downward revision in earning estimates for the balance of the year. The leading steel issue met with better support, but recent specialty favorites declined from their noon high levels.

California oil production for the week was higher. Considerable publicity was given to the probable gold shipments over the next ten days; they were estimated around $50,000,000 and no doubt had some influence on sentiment. Also various sources were quoted as to money prospects over the balance of the month, and indications are that firm rates may prevail.

The market still acts tired and appears to need an outstanding constructive development, as sentiment almost generally appears to be reactionary. The market looks as though it may work still lower.

STEAMER TO BE DELIVERED BY OCTOBER 31

West Coast Vessel, Building at Govan Yards, Is Making Rapid Progress, Latest Report Shows

WELL EQUIPPED FOR COAST NEEDS

Good progress is being made at the Govan plant of the Fairfield Shipbuilding & Engineering Company on the new vessel for the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

Under date of June 8 a report to Captain J. W. Troup, manager of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service, says the framing is almost finished as is also the main deck plating and that of the upper deck. Plating of the hull is now proceeding.

Delivery of the vessel, which will be 250 feet long by forty-eight beam and 25.6 feet molded depth to the upper deck, is expected in October or November, Captain Troup reports.

Designed to have a service speed of fifteen knots, there will be sleeping accommodation for 173 passengers, special attention being directed to afford them outside staterooms.

On the promenade deck will be fourteen rooms equipped with shower baths and four suites de luxe, finished in mahogany and maple. There will be a large observation room on the forward deck, underneath the pilot house, and a specially laid dancing floor is also provided for. The smoking-room, located aft, will be a most comfortable compartment, finished in oak. The new cargo boat will have space for 700 deadweight tons of freight and will also have refrigerator space for handling a car of perishable goods. The system of hatches will be designed to facilitate rapid handling of cargo.

A bow rudder will be installed to facilitate movement in confined space, as is the case in the waters which the vessel will traverse.

A survey of the Nanaimo harbor is being made by the Dominion Hydrographic Survey ship Lillooet.

England Sends Out Girls

PHOTOGRAPH shows a happy group of young women who arrived in this country recently for domestic work, positions having been assured them before leaving the Old Country. They arrived in Montreal after a pleasant voyage on the Canadian Pacific steamship Melita, with the ship's conductress, who is seen in the centre of the group, and who advised them that it were better to work for a salary and be independent than just to work at keeping house.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the tables, the tides rise or fall continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of lower low water.

Esquimalt—To find the depth of water on the sill of the drydock at any time, add thirty feet to the height of high water as given above.

The next Canadian National steamship to arrive from Eastern Canada will be the Canadian Importer, due on July 10, according to word received by the local office of the company.

The Canadian Observer will dock at this port from California tomorrow, it is expected.

FREIGHTER URLA LOADING LUMBER

Will Take 1,200,000 Feet Aboard for U.S. Atlantic Coast—Buyo Maru Sails

The Bowring Steamship Company's freighter Urla docked at the Ogden Point piers from Liverpool at 7:15 o'clock on Sunday night from Liverpool.

The vessel will load 1,200,000 feet of lumber for the United States Atlantic Coast ports. King Brothers, local agents for the vessel, reported yesterday. The vessel is expected to sail for Nanoose Bay tomorrow to complete cargo.

This is not the Urla's first visit to this coast. Captain A. L. Andrew brought his ship to Vancouver last March to load grain for Europe.

The freighter Buyo Maru sailed for Chemainus at 3:45 p.m. on Sunday to complete cargo for Japan. While here the vessel loaded 1,400,000 feet of lumber.

Some of the work contemplated on the Princess Louise will be delayed for a time, and sufficient will be done to permit the vessel to resume her schedule in the Alaskan route, picking up the next sailing. The passengers who would have gone out on her on this sailing are now northward bound on the Princess Kathleen.

GULF RATE WAR GROWS SERIOUS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—The rate war between the four lines in the Pacific Coast-Gulf of Mexico trade assumed serious proportions today and threatened to upset the stability of the North Atlantic intercoastal trade. Slashes in tariffs spread to eastbound rates when one line cut prices of canned goods, dried fruits and beans from 45 cents to 30 cents a hundred pounds, approximately a one-third reduction on basic commodities. The canning season in California is just approaching its peak. The peace conference of the lines in Chicago apparently has failed and their conference organization disbands on July 1.

NEW DRAFT OF ANTI-WAR PACT NOW SUBMITTED

Revised Draft of Treaty Sent to Powers by United States Government — Ready for Signatures

WELL RECEIVED BY BRITISH MINISTERS

WASHINGTON, June 25. — The world's greatest powers today viewed an open threshold to world peace through the United States Government's proposed treaty for outlawing war as submitted by Secretary of State Kellogg.

The draft of the treaty, sent to fourteen proposed signatories, including the British Dominions, together with identic notes from Secretary Kellogg explaining that the treaty had been modified to meet objections of certain nations, was made public today by the State Department.

The proposed treaty, if accepted in the form presented, will require the contracting parties to condemn recourse to war for the solution of international controversies, and to renounce it as an instrument of national policy in their relations with one another, and to agree to settle all disputes and conflicts of whatever nature by pacific means. The treaty also provides that any signatory power which would seek to promote its national interests by resort to war would be denied the benefits of the covenant.

NOT IN CONFLICT

But Secretary Kellogg pointed out in his note that the proposed compact does not deprive any of the contracting parties in the inherent right of self-defence. Neither does it conflict with the treaties of Locarno, the obligations of the League of Nations nor the treaties or neutrality, the secretary's note declared.

The treaty and notes were delivered yesterday to the Foreign Offices of the Governments of Australia, Belgium, Canada, Czechoslovakia, France, Germany, Great Britain, India, the Irish Free State, Italy, Japan, New Zealand, Poland and South Africa.

EARLY RATIFICATION

Secretary Kellogg said that the next step in the negotiations would be the signing of the treaty, and thus far no proposed signatory had expressed dissention to the terms of the covenant. The negotiations will be carried on by representatives of participating countries through the diplomatic exchanges, and no conference is at the present time contemplated.

Secretary Kellogg expressed hope for the early ratification of the treaty by the Government, and pointed out that this Government had modified the preamble of the revised draft in order to meet the objections of other Governments and to expedite negotiations. The modification, the note said, was in form and not in substance.

LONDON, June 25.—The British Government apparently is favorable on the new draft of the proposed treaty to outlaw war. Replying in the Commons today as to whether the new Kellogg proposal would enable the Government to sign the pact without reservation, Hon. Godfrey Locker Lampson, Under Secretary of the Foreign Office said:

"In the opinion of the Government the note marks a considerable advance and it is being most sympathetically considered."

SOUTH AISLE IS UTILIZED

Girls' Friendly Society Holds Anniversary Service in New Cathedral Building

Dean Quainton officiated at the anniversary service on Sunday afternoon of the Girls' Friendly Society, which was the first service held in the south aisle of new Christ Church Cathedral.

While in by-gone days there was a lack of friendliness in cathedrals in the Old Land, the Dean said, he hoped that the new cathedral in Victoria would become "an open house where friendliness is steadied by dignity and freedom by reverence."

"Many an Anglican had been lost to the Church of England through lack of friendliness," the Dean declared. "It is sometimes forgotten that a cup of tea may be a sacramental thing and a means of grace to the stranger or newcomer in our midst." He hoped the new cathedral would be a cathedral for the young as well as for the aged, a place of great friendliness, and a temple of life and hope.

The Dean referred to the excellent progress made by the builders, which, he stated, would encourage all to persevere in the appeal for funds to complete the nave.

The hymns sung were "The Church's One Foundation," "Blest Are the Pure in Heart," "Love Divine, all Loves Excelling," and the G.F.S. hymn, "True Friends Help Each Other." Before the Dean's address, all present repeated the object of the Girls' Friendly Society: "To unite for the glory of God, in one fellowship of prayer and service, the girls and women of the Empire, to uphold purity in thought, word and deed."
